

January 10, 2024

“And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative, when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say good-bye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling with terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand?... The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transport and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst, the cursed machine would have ground to a halt! If...if...We didn't love freedom enough. And even more – we had no awareness of the real situation.... We purely and simply deserved everything that happened afterward.”
— Aleksandr I. Solzhenitsyn , The Gulag Archipelago 1918–1956

Leftists, Statists, Socialists, Communists, Democrats...

Their advocates, supporters, dependents, employees, agents and bureaucrats...

Our corrupted institutions, corporations, media, academia, NGO's...

promoters all of government supremacy...of perversion... of un-American, un-Christian thought, policy, culture...

invest so much stock into the entity and essence of government, that it may be considered their identity, a metaphor for themselves and their existence, beyond government serving as just a proxy instrument...it IS they, and they it.

Such presumption affords them majority-sanctioned power to impose, confiscate and silence opposition... to bludgeon truth and its defenders...

an entitlement.

Any matter of contention/rebellion/disagreement/protest for their usurped authority constitutes a heinous act against their person and commands retribution, then prosecution - to the hilt.

That they so need the bubble of government as an instrument of security, as a font for their comfort and needs is pathetic and disgraceful – that they cannot stand as a man on their own feet is so infantile and unbecoming, it warrants the harshest condemnation.

They concoct and connive their essence into a self-declared legitimacy of being, a supremacy of being, when it is nothing but a weak, albeit dangerous and vile charade... an affront to God, to natural order and to us.

Shame on every last one of them.

YOU, the free individual, are the BOGEYMAN.

This is war...

Embrace it.

The Zek Staff