

The Hate Speech Folly

Through two centuries of illegally wrought precedent – by judicial lawmaking, by legislative ignorance and sloth, and by immense administrative usurpation... promoted under purely emotional auspices ...

the Left/Communist/Democrat machine has crafted a 'Matrix', a fortress if you will...

with the express purpose of commandeering control of the people, of the playing field, of resources, of all power- to the point of securing absolute government (totality) for this elitist cabal of arrogant fools...

by leveraging the notion of 'righting' the declared, previous oppression of marginalized groups by historical 'bogeymen'...

and connecting all essence of Liberty, individual sovereignty, and the founding of the U.S. to that declared exploitation of the marginalized groups in order to delegitimize the United States in its entirety and dissolve it in globalism...

In the names of equity and social justice...in the hijacked and convoluted perception of 'probity'... and in the face of Natural Law...they defy Natural Law.

Because who knows better than They?

Because what is God (their nemesis) but an invention of the unenlightened/unwashed?

Because never mind that even as all human convention is flawed, the Left's aspiration to galvanize their precious inclination to impose their will on others is sacrosanct and trumps the individual's natural rights and dignity being secured?

Because, Corona virus? Because climate change? Because immortality and utopia await?

The right to speak your mind is one of those pesky natural rights that the Left finds an obstacle to their schemes, and an obscene obstacle at that – it must be stifled.

Yet the right to speak your mind is all-encompassing. The right to speak your mind includes provocative, ugly, abrasive, hurtful epithets – it includes hateful language.

And the right to speak your mind is non-negotiable.

So, in response, the Left, in its infantile vigor, has declared ‘hate’ itself, a crime – expressing thoughts and emotions alone may be deemed criminal...

and in this infantile rationale, has declared itself the arbiter of all things hate – its definition, its context.

They have professed to themselves the ability and authority to discern hate, to discern intent, to discern your heart’s ‘operating in malice’ toward their marginalized victims... while redefining what is good, what is acceptable, what is just, what is responsible, what is wisdom...and criminalizing your righteous ability to challenge their Holiness with a single, dirty label – hater or bigot or racist or homophobe or insurrectionist or terrorist or Christian or Patriot or American.

Anti-truth ... all of it done in the name of truth.

Thus,

the umbrella, ‘hate has no home here’.

Stay in your cell, American.

[Since oppression occurred amidst the birthing of the U.S., it follows that the principles girding the founding and the founding’s protagonists are necessarily illegitimate and must be abandoned. And it therefore follows that our contemporary political class being so enlightened and blameless are authorized enough to do just that. Ergo, any reference to the timeless principles that champion the essence of the natural human condition (first and foremost, freedom) are verboten and must be expunged]
