Returns/Errors

We want to make sure your item is signed to your highest satisfaction. Please keep the following in mind when shipping your item:

- Bobbleheads and other collectibles should be packaged safe for mailing. We have bubble wrap and packing paper available to further cushion your item if we feel necessary, otherwise we will return the package as it was received.
- Cards, photos and posters have the potential to smear, smudge or bend during the shipping process. You can protect your memorabilia investment by using cardboard reinforcement, ask mail service associate to mark as ‘DO NOT BEND’, and use plastic sleeves to protect the surface. Items received in damaged condition are logged upon opening and will be noted to sender.
- Autograph shape and size may vary from item to item. Johnny signs all items to the best of his ability and professional opinion with the instructions you have provided. If you are unsatisfied with your autograph but it meets the criteria as indicated on your submission form, you may not be eligible for a return.
- If you receive your item and feel we did not follow the instructions properly or the autograph has been defaced in the mailing process, please contact us immediately with pictures and details of your claim. We will either work to re-sign or replace your item based on condition.

Thank you again for choosing Johnny Bench to sign your memorabilia, we appreciate your loyalty as a fan. Be sure to share your autographed item on Twitter and Instagram by tagging @JohnnyBench_5.
