

Mesmerising Meghalaya -- 06 Nights/ 07 Days

Guwahati – Shillong – Cherrapunjee – Mawlynnong – Dawki – Nartiang – Guwahati

Day 01: Arrive Guwahati, drive to Shillong, 100 KM/ 3 hours

Meet & assist and transfer to Shillong. On the way stop at the beautiful Umiyam Lake (Barapani). Check into hotel. We spend time at Police Bazaar in the evening to get the vibe of this charming hill station as this is the prime location with shops and restaurants and pubs. Overnight.

Day 02: In Shillong

Morning visit the Don Bosco Museum with 7 storeys that houses a wide array of artifacts and a fantastic collection of each of the major tribes of Northeast India. From here drive to the Laitlum Canyon for great views of the hills and valleys. Return to Shillong via Smit village, a traditional Khasi settlement. Afternoon at Ward's Lake in the city center with a walkway round it.

Day 03: Shillong – Cherrapunjee, 56 KM/ 2 hours

Drive through the rolling hills of Meghalaya to the wettest place on earth. On the way visit Elephant Falls in the outskirts of the city, continue on to Cherrapunjee. Local sightseeing - Nohkalikai Falls, 7 Sisters Falls, Limestone cave, Bangladesh viewpoint.

Day 04: Cherrapunjee

Another day at Cherrapunjee visiting waterfalls and viewpoints.

Day 05: Drive to Mawlynnong, 110 KM/ 3 hours driving time

Drive to Mawlynnong, voted as the cleanest village in Asia. We walk 10 minutes from the parking lot to the amazing Living Root Bridge that hangs over a rushing stream. We will also visit the balancing rock, climb up a bamboo staircase woven round a tall tree to have a panoramic view of the plains far below, Overnight at a homestay.

Day 06: Mawlynnong – Guwahati via Dawki & Krang Shuri Waterfalls, 250 KM/ 7 hours

We take the less crowded road today to get to Assam. We first drive to Dawki - view of the crystal clear Umngot River is a sight to behold. Option for boating and other water sports. Spend time around the area and then drive on to the beautiful Krang Shuri waterfalls on the way. We will be going past the town of Jowai and close by is Nartiang with the monolithic stones and an old Durga temple. Continue on to Guwahati driving through the serene countryside with pine covered forests and finally into the Assam plains. Check into hotel.

NOTE: The driving time is 7 hours, with stops as described above the actual time will be more

Day 07: Guwahati – Kamakhya Temple, airport transfer

Check out from hotel with luggage in the vehicle and drive to the banks of the Brahmaputra for a 15-minute boat ride to Peacock Island to visit the Umananda temple. This is a small island with a pathway around it with good views of the river and the city skyline. Return to your vehicle, drive up the Nilachal Hills to visit Kamakhya Temple. Please note we will take a parikrama of the temple. From here we are transferred to the airport to board your outgoing flight.
