6. MISSED OR MISSCHEDULED CLASSES

If a class is misscheduled due to an error on the part of the Client:

- An invoice will be issued for the participation fees of the minimum number of students required for the scheduled course.
- If payment was made in advance, a refund will be issued minus the participation fees for the course minimum number of students for the scheduled course.

7. EQUIPMENT DAMAGE

Any equipment damaged beyond normal wear and tear during the course will be charged to the Client. The Client agrees to cover the full cost of replacement and/or shipping for the damaged equipment.

8. INDEMNIFICATION & RELEASE OF LIABILITY

The Client agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Apollo First Aid, its instructors, employees, agents, and affiliates from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, losses, costs, and expenses (including legal fees) arising from or related to participation in any training course, including but not limited to personal injury, property damage, or third-party claims.

The Client acknowledges and agrees that participation in first aid training involves inherent risks, and by enrolling in a course, the Client voluntarily assumes all such risks. Apollo First Aid and its affiliates shall not be held liable for any injuries, damages, or losses sustained during the training, whether caused by negligence or otherwise.

9. GENERAL TERMS

- The Client agrees to comply with all applicable health and safety regulations during the training.
- Apollo First Aid reserves the right to refuse service to any participant who fails to meet course requirements or violates safety guidelines.
- This Agreement is governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the training is conducted.
