

A LIGHT ON THE HILL

by Diane Anderson

Out of the darkness
A destiny to fulfill
A woman of virtue
A light on the hill

Being crowned with favor
By her Father above
His light shining through her
Displaying wisdom and love

Her works are a testament
Of kindness and strength
A ray of hope follows her
Wherever she went

Through trials and tests
Through courage and pain
She is continually refined
Trusting in Yah's Great Name

Standing tall in her calling
As she yields to her Father's will
The world will always see
A light on the hill
