

YAHUAH'S REQUIREMENTS WILL NEVER CHANGE

Rash Zaqen D.E. Anderson

Across today's landscape of religious belief and devotion, there is a visible abundance of organizations and denominations vying for the allegiance of the men and women seeking a higher being to give their worship. This allegiance serves no purpose without knowing the requirements Yahuah has for true worship. This is no different than the ancient times when the descendants of Abraham, Yishaq, and Ya'aqub had been delivered from their Egyptian bondage and were setting up new homes and communities within the land of Canaan. The condition is described in the following passage:

Judges 17:6 In those days there was no sovereign in Yashar`al – everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

This self-focused approach would seem to be against the directives which were delivered at Mount Sinai when the Creator's governance for the people was written on tablets of stone. Mashah, after receiving the ten commandments, would later prophetically warn the people of their rebellion in this passage:

Deuteronomy 31:29 "For I know that after my death you shall do very corruptly and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil shall come to you in the latter days, because you do what is evil in the eyes of אלהים, to provoke Him through the work of your hands."

In man's nature, a desire exists to bring the surrounding beliefs and understanding into conformance with the thoughts and knowledge to which he is accustomed. Therefore, he assesses the rightness of a matter through his own personal lens. This approach could be no more erroneous given man's knowledge is finite and limited.

Isaiah 55:9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts."

We, therefore, need a composite knowledge across both the spiritual and earthly training in order to rightly divide the directives which the Creator has set as His standard for human activity. The spiritual comes directly from the Creator and is conveyed to man through a variety of channels. Yahuah's unadulterated Word directly conveys His requirements and is discerned through the invisible realm of spirit. The Spirit is the revealer and it penetrates the understanding of all matters, even the depths of Alahym.

1 Corinthians 2:10 But Alahym has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all matters, even the depths of Alahym.

The earthly training embodies the history and religious narratives associated with the people which were chosen to show forth the esteem of the eternal Creator.

Ezekiel 20:5 And you shall say to them, "Thus said the Master אלהים, 'On the day when I chose Yashar`al and lifted My hand in an oath to the seed of the house of Ya'aqob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Mitsrayim, I lifted My hand in an oath to them, saying, 'I am אלהים your Alahym.'"

Much of the earthly training information has been corrupted by men who profane the knowledge of Alahym and insert narratives which deny His role in the existence of His people and the nation. We must therefore be diligent and watchful such that our belief structure gives all esteem to the Creator and His Word regarding His plan for mankind.

2 Peter 3:9 ﷲ is not slow in regard to the promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward us, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

Unfortunately, some will perish due to their rejection of the spiritual and natural training which Alahym has placed among humanity. There is a growing trend among this hedonistic, pleasure-seeking world to craft a religious strategy that aligns with their personal understanding and yet it denies the power of the Creator.

Isaiah 24:5 For the earth has been defiled under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the Turat, changed the law, broken the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 Therefore a curse shall consume the earth, and those who dwell in it be punished. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth shall be burned, and few men shall be left.

We must all quickly return to the Turah of Alahym's Word and embrace the actions which will spare us from punishment and the wrath which is to come. The repentance which Alahym seeks is not that of a passive and self-righteous mode. He has shown mankind sufficient evidence of His existence and His set-apartness.

Micah 6:8 He has declared to you, O man, what is good. And what does ﷲ require of you but to do right, and to love loving-commitment, and to walk humbly with your Alahym?

Many may say they have never heard from the Creator as to His requirements and that they are going to simply wait until He personally directs them to His truths. These individuals proceed from a false premise as Alahym has placed His requirements and framework throughout creation to declare His counsel. While being long-suffering towards us, He yet commands men to repent.

Acts 17:30 Truly, then, having overlooked these times of ignorance, Alahym now commands all men everywhere to repent.

We must manifest a sense of urgency in our reconciliation to the Creator and His Word. No one desires to experience eternal separation from the Creator and also miss the reign of His kingdom. The joys of His kingdom so superbly pass anything which we have experienced on the current earth. On the other hand, the resting place of the unbeliever will not mirror that of a believer.

Hebrews 10:30 For we know Him who has said, "Vengeance is Mine, I shall repay, says ﷲ." And again, "ﷲ shall judge His people."

Hebrews 10:31 It is fearsome to fall into the hands of the living Alahym.

2 Corinthians 5:11 Knowing, therefore, the fear of אלהים, we persuade men, but we have been made manifest to Alahym, and I also trust in your consciences to have been manifested.

So many of our days are filled with non-value-added activities which take us only farther from resolving the spiritual distance and shortfall that we have with the Creator. His Word establishes all that he expects from His people via dedication and service. We have to demonstrate the required mastery which reflects our capability to then go and deliver understanding to others. We can not be found producing the undesired impact on unbelievers as the scribes and Pharisees.

Matthew 23:15 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you go about the land and the sea to win one convert, and when he is won, you make him a son of GěHinnom (Hell) twofold more than yourselves.”

The mastery of the Word equips our mind and heart in a way that makes our work to not be in vain when at the time of evaluation.

Proverbs 11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, And he who is winning lives is wise.

Those which the Creator esteems worthy to carry and present the message do have a great responsibility because there is so much erroneous information within much of the commentary and many of the Bible translation. It is possible to cut through the untruths and opinions of writers which have not been commissioned to take the Word to those in darkness.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a set-apart nation, a people for a possession, that you should proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Be encouraged and continue sowing the seeds of truth across all those with whom you are engaging in this walk of deliverance from this present world.
