Techniques and Tactics: Reflection on 2025 & Supporting the Military Community in the Holiday Season

As the year winds down, we want to take a moment to reflect on our collective journey and celebrate the incredible progress we've made together. Thanks to the hard work and dedication of our employees, partners, and all of you in the Veteran and Military Spouse community, Forward March Inc. achieved significant milestones in 2025 and reached out to our largest number yet. We launched MRRT (Mission Ready Recruiter Training), expanded into more events, and continued to strengthen our community partnerships. These accomplishments are a testament to the resilience and innovative spirit of this team. We are immensely grateful for your contributions and look forward to an even more successful year in 2026, helping Veterans and Military Spouses find meaningful careers with employers who understand the military world. Thank you for being the driving force behind our success, cheers!

On another note, the holiday season, while a time of joy for many, can also be a challenging and lonely period for others, particularly members of our military community, veterans, and their families. At Forward March Inc, we encourage everyone to check in with colleagues, friends, and loved ones. A simple question like, "Are you okay?" can make a significant difference. Creating a caring and supportive environment is a responsibility we all share.
