

2020 AMPHIBIOUS SHIPS REUNION

Annapolis, MD | September 21-25, 2020

Welcome to Annapolis!

Annapolis, Maryland's capital city, is located on the venerable Chesapeake Bay widely known as "America's Sailing Capital", and home to the inimitable US Naval Academy. Did you know that Annapolis served as our nation's first peacetime capital? Maryland's four signers of the Declaration of Independence had homes here, which are a few minutes' walk from each other and can still be visited and enjoyed today. There are more 18th-century brick homes in Annapolis than any other city in the nation. We will visit buildings once frequented by names like Jefferson and Washington, or the exact spot the Treaty of Paris was ratified. Or stop by the domed, 1700's Maryland State House – the oldest in continuous use – for a peek into the room where George Washington resigned his military commission to the Continental Congress.

Downtown Annapolis is famous for its historic inns and scenic streets, but along those streets are some of the finest restaurants the region has to offer. Maryland Avenue is long-treasured as one of downtown Annapolis' best spots for shopping, dining, and experiencing the culture.

This Amphibious Ships reunion is going to be exciting and we anticipate a large crowd. Note, there are a limited amount of hotel rooms. Don't miss out, reserve your hotel room now before they sell out! Click Here to make your reunion hotel reservations on-line now with a credit card. Look for further info on group events, tours, banquet, etc. and the release of the registration form/website, in the new year.
