

The Love Party Recruitment Sample Script

Member:

I'm a member of a global movement called The Love Party. We are devoted to spreading love throughout the world to people of all races, nationalities, religions, ages, genders, sexual orientations, etc. Our first priority is ensuring that everyone's basic needs are met. We define basic needs as food, clean water, clothing, shelter and health care. The next priority is ensuring that everyone has real freedom in which to flourish. That means all humans have the right to do anything they want if it does not harm or cause unreasonable risk of harm to others. We have a platform that lays out specific freedoms.

(Show them the platform)

To be a member of The Love Party you need to be able to accept this platform and agree to let love guide your decisions. It's that simple. And by the way, accepting the platform does not mean that you personally agree with all of it. For example, you might not agree with homosexuality, same sex marriages, plural marriages, gender reassignment surgery or drug use. That's fine. You are free to make your own decisions about how you live your life. Accepting the platform just means that you are willing to let everyone else make their own decisions as well.

So, will you join us as a member of The Love Party?
