

Feast of Saint Peter and Saint Paul:

Veneration of the two great Apostles, Peter and Paul, has its roots in the very foundations of the Church. They are the solid rock on which the Church is built. They are at the origin of her faith and will forever remain her protectors and her guides. To them Rome owes her true greatness, for it was under God's providential guidance that they were led to make the capital of the Empire, sanctified by their martyrdom, the center of the Christian world whence should radiate the preaching of the Gospel.

St. Peter suffered martyrdom under Nero, in A.D. 66 or 67. He was buried on the hill of the Vatican where recent excavations have revealed his tomb on the very site of the Basilica of St. Peter's. St. Paul was beheaded in the Via Ostia on the spot where now stands the basilica bearing his name. Down the centuries Christian people in their thousands have gone on pilgrimage to the tombs of these Apostles. In the second and third centuries the Roman Church already stood pre-eminent by reason of her apostolicity, the infallible truth of her teaching and her two great figures, Sts. Peter and Paul.

Prayer:

*O holy Apostles, Peter and Paul,
intercede for us.
Protect, O Lord, your people
who trust in the patronage of your Apostles,
Peter and Paul,
and by their constant protection
protect your people.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

Pope Francis speaks on the feast of Saint Peter and Paul:

On the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul on Monday, Pope Francis urged Christians to pray for one another and for unity, saying "only prayer unlocks chains."

"What would happen if we prayed more and complained less?" Pope Francis asked in his homily in St. Peter's Basilica on June 29.

"The same thing that happened to Peter in prison: now as then, so many closed doors would be opened, so many chains that bind would be broken. ... Let us ask for the grace to be able to pray for one another," he said.

Pope Francis said that Peter and Paul were two very different people, yet God gave them the grace to be closely united in Christ.

CANADA DAY: July 1 is celebrated as Canada's birthday. Canadians should seek to be witnesses to Christ in Canada and the world, to continue working to influence those in government to act from Christian principles and attitudes. Christians, realizing they do not have a lasting home here on Earth, should pray and work for justice and peace in Canada and throughout the world, so that all God's people may share in the goods of the Earth.

MEMORIAL DAY NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR:

July 1st is meant to help us remember the sacrifices of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, especially those killed or injured in the July 1, 1916, battle of Beaumont Hamel. We are indebted to them and likewise pledge to work for lasting peace.
