

March 14th, 2021 – 4th Sunday of Lent

Jesus said to Nicodemus: “God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him . . . Whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.”
John 3: 14-21

Patron of those on the edge

Many of us stand pretty much on the edge of faith. There’s just so far we will go with Jesus. We love those who love us — but our own come first. We’ll forgive someone just about anything — provided they assure us they won’t do it again (and pay for the damages). We’re willing to help the poor and destitute — as long as we’re convinced they really need the help (and will be appropriately grateful).

We see the Gospel as a worthy but unattainable ideal: it would be really great if the meek could inherit the earth, if we could see Christ in the Lazaruses at our gates, if we were always in the position of crossing the busy street to be someone’s Good Samaritan. But, Lord, the world just doesn’t work that way — so, for the sake of family and career, we pragmatically confine faith in its designated time and space in our lives.

Nicodemus is one of us. This Jesus has struck a nerve in this teacher and “ruler” of the Jewish establishment. He has questions — but, given his position, he has to stay under the radar, so he comes to meet Jesus privately, late at night.

Jesus talks about God in ways that Nicodemus has never thought of: a God of compassion rather than a God of order and law; a God of forgiveness rather than a God of condemnation; a God of light who illuminates the darkness; a God who constantly calls us back to him; a God who is Father of all.

Nicodemus’ reaction to all of this is not recorded — but something clicks. When the Jewish council plots to condemn Jesus, Nicodemus will protest and defend Jesus; on Good Friday, when the body of Jesus is taken down from the cross, Nicodemus will be there, with myrrh and aloes (not an inexpensive contribution) to bury Jesus.

Slowly, Nicodemus moves from the edge of faith to the center where the Spirit of God dwells. For Nicodemus, Jesus’ image of God is no longer just an ideal but a powerful sign of compassion and mercy dwelling in our midst.

Nicodemus struggles with Jesus — as we all do. But he possesses the grace of an open heart and mind and so comes to find God. He seeks God — and finds God. And so can we.

We are all Nicodemus: We struggle to make sense of Jesus; we wrestle with trying to reconcile his Gospel with the demands of our world. In his questioning and confusion, in his fears and doubts, Nicodemus is welcomed by Jesus with understanding and compassion. Like Nicodemus, we are all seekers and Christ has assured us of his company on our journey; like Nicodemus, we find ourselves coming to Jesus in the middle of our darkest nights, seeking hope and consolation, direction and comfort — and Jesus neither rejects us nor admonishes us, but welcomes us. We discover the God that Nicodemus discovers: a God of light who transforms our despair into hope; a God of wisdom who enables us to re-create our Good Friday deaths into Easter resurrections; a God of compassion who heals our broken spirits into hearts made whole.

MASSES CANCELLED - COVID ALERT LEVEL 3:

Bishop Bart has issued the following statement to deal with opening of churches with us being in Alert Level 3.

Beginning on Saturday, we will be entering Alert Level 3 for at least two weeks. During that time, we will be allowed to have funerals, weddings and religious services with a maximum of twenty people (including the Presider). Masks must be worn by all who attend for the entire service. Proper distancing must also be observed. ... If you want to hold off until we have another drop in Alert Levels, you may also do that. Under the present conditions, the Chrism Mass will be open to the priests in the immediate vicinity and those people needed for ministries, the bringing up of the oils and live streaming.

In consulting with the Cathedral Parish and other larger parishes we have decided to not reopen for mass until larger numbers are permitted.

YEAR OF THE FAMILY: Beginning on the Feast of St. Joseph on March 19th, 2021 and culminating on June 26th, 2022, with the 10th World Meeting of Families (in Rome), Pope Francis has declared a special Year of the Family. To begin this special year, we invite our diocesan family to join us in praying a Novena to St. Joseph, which will be live streamed on the Diocesan Facebook page each evening at 7:00 pm beginning Thursday, March 11th culminating on March 19th. May we find, in St. Joseph, the support and protection that our families need.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ROSARY: During lent the Knights will be reciting the Rosary Fridays at 7:00 pm on Bay of Islands Radio (BOIR) 100.1 FM and also on the website boir.ca. Please join us in praying the Rosary together. The Knights of Columbus would like to thank Father Terry Boland and BOIR for their cooperation.

Registration is free of charge. Speakers include: Bishop Scott MCCAig, Military Ordinariate, Andre Regnier, Co-founder of C.C.O. (Campus Ministry) and Jake Khym. The Focus: St. Joseph.

LADIES GROUP FUNDRAISING: Even though we are unable to attend Mass in church at this time, we are continuing with our Bingo Draw to help keep funds flowing into our parish. All donations received for Feb have been put aside and the draw will be made as soon as Mass resumes. Donations for March draw are now being accepted. Each $10 donation gives you one chance in the draw. Donors for this month are those with last names starting with N through Y and anyone else who would like to enter. For your convenience, you may drop off your donation in my mailbox at 86 Allen's Rd or to Pat Jones at 11 Noseworthy's Ln., or to the parish house. Please stay safe, follow the medical guidelines, and hopefully we will be able to return to church in the near future.

CATHOLIC JOURNEY THROUGH LENT: At the beginning of each week, during Lent, a short 5-minute reflection will be available on the following week's Gospel. Bishop Bergie from St. Catherine's will be doing the reflections. These reflections can be viewed by going to the cccb.ca website.

FOURTH DEGREE, KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR:

The NL District of the 4th Degree is planning a Virtual Fourth Degree Exemplification for Saturday, March 20, at 10:00 am using the application GoToMeeting. WHAT IS THE MEANING OF LENT?

PRAYER

Prayer is our conversation with God, through which we develop a more intimate relationship with God.

FASTING

Fasting has always been recognized as a powerful tool for building self-discipline and helping us to resist temptation.

ALMSGIVING

Almsgiving means making the needs of other people our own. We are also called to share our time tending to people in need.
