JUBILEE 2025 – PILGRIMS OF HOPE:
Anchored in Hope:

Hope, together with faith and charity, makes up the triptych of the “theological virtues” that express the heart of the Christian life (cf.1 Cor 13:13; 1 Thess 1:3).

In their inseparable unity, hope is the virtue that, so to speak, gives inward direction and purpose to the life of believers.

For this reason, the Apostle Paul encourages us to “rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, and persevere in prayer” (Rom 12:12).

Surely we need to “abound in hope” (cf. Rom 15:13), so that we may bear credible and attractive witness to the faith and love that dwell in our hearts; that our faith may be joyful and our charity enthusiastic; and that each of us may be able to offer a smile, a small gesture of friendship, a kind look, a ready ear, a good deed, in the knowledge that, in the Spirit of Jesus, these can become, for those who receive them, rich seeds of hope.

Yet what is the basis of our hope? To understand this, let us stop and reflect on “the reasons for our hope” (cf.1 Pet3:15)

Reflection:Beatitudes of life

Blessed are the faithful:
they are like safe anchors in a world of broken moorings.

Blessed are the just:
they are to society what leaven is to bread.

Blessed are the generous:
they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people.

Blessed are the caring:
they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference.

Blessed are the genuine:
they glow like gems in a world of falseness.

Blessed are those who are not afraid of sacrifice: on the day of the harvest they will sing for joy.

And blessed are those who refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom of Heaven.
