CONFÉRENCE DES ÉVÊQUES CATHOLIQUES DU CANADA
CANADIAN CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

STATEMENT BY THE STANDING COMMITTEE FOR FAMILY AND LIFE
TO THE CATHOLIC FAITHFUL IN CANADA AND ALL PEOPLE OF GOOD WILL VOICING CONCERN AND CALLING FOR PRAYERS ON THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF EUTHANASIA AND ASSISTED SUICIDE (“MAID”)

On this 10th anniversary, we pray for all those whose lives have been lost to “MAID.” We also pray for their loved ones, many of whom continue to carry grief, confusion, regret, or unanswered questions. We remember those who continue to suffer: the sick, persons with disabilities, the elderly, those living with mental illness, those nearing the end of life, and all who experience loneliness, fear, or despair. We renew our call to “give witness at the side of the sick person and to become a ‘healing community’ in order to actualize concretely the desire of Jesus that, beginning with the most weak and vulnerable, all may be one flesh.” Even in suffering, illness, dependence, and frailty, human life retains its God-given dignity and capacity for love, communion, and grace.

We give thanks to the many dioceses, eparchies, parishes, organizations, healthcare workers, families, and volunteers who, over the past 10 years, have promoted Christian hope in the face of illness and death and have resisted “MAID” with courage and compassion. Their witness reminds us that defending life is not only a public teaching, but also a daily work of presence: visiting the sick, supporting caregivers, accompanying those in despair, advocating for the vulnerable, and helping build communities where no one feels they must face suffering alone.....

HOLY FATHERS’ INTENTIONS - JULY:
For respect for human life –
Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God.

REFLECTION: Come to me
The Lord said to me, ‘Come to me.’
But I said, ‘I’m not worthy.’
‘Come to me,’ he repeated.
And I said, ‘I’m afraid.’
‘Come to me,’ ‘I’m too proud.’
‘Come to me,’ ‘But I’ve no appointment.’
‘Come to me,’ ‘But I can’t afford the time right now.’
‘Come to me,’ With that I fell silent.
Then he said, “Come...sit down... take the load off your feet.
‘Sit here as in the shade of a tree.
‘Refresh yourself as at a running stream.
‘Here you will find rest. Here you will find peace.
‘And your yoke will become easy, and your burden light.’
