

April 12th, 2026: 2nd Sunday of Easter

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY:

When celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday, the faithful are called to reflect more personally on the graces won through the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In this way their hearts may be more fully aware of the mercy of God for them personally and for the sake of the world.

REFLECTIONS:

What faith does

Some people think that if you have enough faith life will be plain sailing for you. But this is not so.

The fact that we can swim doesn’t prevent us from being knocked about by the waves.

In the same way faith doesn’t shield us from the hard knocks of life or death.

What, then, does faith do?

It give us bearings and thus enables us to live in a topsy-turvy world without getting lost or giving in to despair.

Just as swimmers trust that if they don’t panic, and if they do a few simple things, then the power of the sea will uphold them, so believers entrust their lives to a power greater than themselves, a power greater than us all.

This power is the power of God, who brought his Son, Jesus, back from the dead.
