After a time of heavy rain or a storm, when the sun comes out, you may see a Rainbow if you look to the sky. When you see a Rainbow - do you ever get the feeling of relief or excitement?

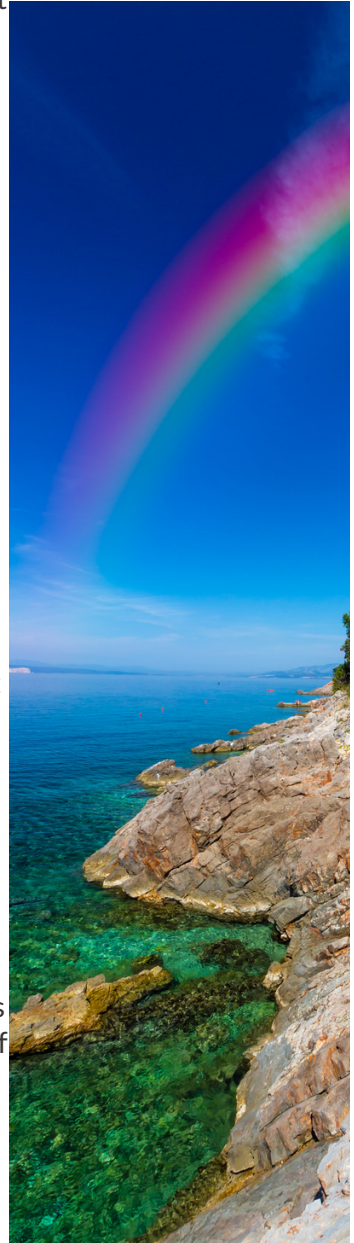

That happens for me and I always wondered -- "Why?" it's just a rainbow.

During Bible study I was reintroduced to the famous Bible story of "Noah's Ark", if you are not familiar with this story, you can find it in Genesis chapter 6.

God tells Noah to do something that's unheard of. He tells Noah to build an ark to hold his family and all the animals because he is going to flood the Earth to get rid of the evil that have emerged. God was very specific with details of how the ark should be built and what to do with the animals. He told Noah that of the clean animals to take in seven pairs of, male and female; of the unclean animals take two pairs, male and female. Once the ark was complete, it rained for 40 days and 40 nights continuously and took 165 days until the water receded and there was land. When that happened, Noah, his family and all of the animals came out of the ark and that's when God made the promise to not ever flood the earth again. In honor of that promise he placed a Rainbow in the sky. And that is how Rainbows came to be. Did you know that God has made other promises too? There are so many wonderful promises that God has made and He is sure to keep them all. So whenever you see a Rainbow, remember, it's a reminder of the promises of God, his signature that he will fulfill the promises He's made to us. That is why it's important to learn more about who God, our Heavenly Father in Heaven is. Let's start with His name, Jehovah, which can be found in the book of Psalm, chapter 83 verse 18 (83:18) KJV. Take a look for yourself and go from there, if you don't have a Bible, download one, start there. God Bless - Shalom

This issue is a faith filled one and includes some spiritual discoveries that needed to be shared. As a Christian learning more and NEW ways about living the life God has intended and adjusting accordingly is not not always 'easy'. Nonetheless, we endure and push (pray until something happens) through. What you'll read in this issue may give you an additional push. I attempted to write objectively, however, that was difficult to do because these were personal situations I encountered and witnessed others encountering the same. So, I wrote from my heart and stayed in prayer to make sure that I was in alignment with Gods will. Here is the result. I hope that this years issue of GBMG Magazine resonates with you on a different level. Thank you so much for your support, God Bless! - Bianka

Mission of the Year!

Breaking the Curses

We're in the era of "Woke" but are we really? The talk of building legacy and breaking generational curses is a hot trending topic. Individuals and families are doing all they can do to do better and not make the same mistakes as the generations before them. I am all for it. As I continue to push forward with my Bible studies and strengthening my relationship with Jehovah, my eyes were opened to recognize patterns in my life, as well as in those around me. Generational patterns. So I started praying and asking for wisdom as to why this was so and the revelation is astonishing. I began to learn that there are principles of operation in the Spirit. A set of guidelines that allow or permit certain things to operate in your life. Then I learned that certain actions actually allow the Devil, the adversary, to operate in your life and lineage. Acts such as, participating in witchcraft, having sex with multiple people that you aren't married to, abortion — you get my drift. After I prayed for wisdom and deliverance one day, the video made by prophet, Tiphani Montgomery, appeared on my timeline, I had seen this video before but never wanted to click on it but this time when I saw it, something (the Holy Spirit) inside told me to click on it. It's title..."Your destiny is being delayed", is exactly why I did not want to click on it before, this time I did. I am so happy I did because it has lead me to write what I am sharing with you now. What she was saying made sense to me, my soul was immediately grateful, it was like I had finally found the missing piece to solving this equation. I crossed reference what she was saying to see if it lined up with the Word of God - it did. On the left is the key to breaking curses and living in the will of God. If you need more meat and potatoes, I suggest looking up Tiphani Montgomery on YouTube, "Your destiny is being delayed" video and have your pen, notepad and Bible out. I pray that you are released from any oppression in Jesus name, - Amen.

- Repentance is important, recognizing that you have lived outside the will of God and not kept his commandments but are remorseful. (It's a step up from saying, "I'm sorry")

Ex. having sex outside of marriage, the most common.

- Verbally denounce all that is not of God and get rid of anything that is not of Him.

Ex. Tarot cards

- Enter in agreement with Jesus Christ. Plea the blood of Jesus, because of him, we are redeemed but you gotta go to him for it. Galatians 3:13
- Armor up, Ephesians 6:10-18
