February 23rd- Why Representation Matters, FSU Law Rotunda at 6:30pm

Galentines Social- 2/19

We are having a Galentines Brunch Social this Sunday, February 19th! We have made a group reservation at Madison Social (705 S Woodward Ave) for 11am based on your RSVP's! Everyone will order and pay for themselves! We are so excited to bond and share a meal together and hope to see everyone there! If you have any questions, please reach out to Jenna.

Spring Retreat

WIPS will be going to Tampa/Stetson College of Law from March 24th through March 26th! On our retreat we will tour the law school, visit law firms (including former guest speaker, Rachael Reese's), and do fun group activities. For more information on the Spring Retreat, please visit our website and see the PowerPoint entitled "Spring Retreat Interest Meeting." Retreat forms and payments are due on Sunday, February 19th at 11:59pm and make sure to get those in ASAP as we do have an attendance cap!

Why Representation Matters Panel

WIPS is co-sponsoring an event with the Black Law Students Association, C.S.D. in honor of Black History Month entitled “Why Representation Matters” on Thursday, February 23rd at 6:30pm in the FSU Law Rotunda! The event will be a panel comprised of Black attorneys in the Tallahassee area.

Next Meeting: Amber Hall

At our next meeting on March 1st, Amber Hall will be our guest speaker! Attorney Hall is a top rated injury attorney with years of experience and thousands of cases closed. Her firm, Amber Hall, Attorney at Law, PLLC (a.k.a. AMBER HALL LAW) is a boutique Tallahassee Personal Injury law firm that handles cases involving automobile accidents, truck/bike accidents, wrongful death, brain injuries, work-related accidents, medical malpractice, premises liability, and personal injury!

Please Welcome: Jenna Stafford

Join us in welcoming Jenna Stafford, a Multicultural Admissions Officer from Florida State College of Law! We are so excited to have her hear to speak about FSU Law, the J.D. admissions process, and to take our questions!
