Ages or color group served: Orange (Will accept a mature blue student who reads fluently, with teacher's approval)

What level is this class: Level 3

Prerequisites: NA

Graduation Requirements: Must complete reading, assignments, and demonstrate an understanding of the material.

Homework Requirements: Reading at home will be required.

Class Description:

Join us on an exciting adventure through J.R.R. Tolkien's timeless fantasy classic, The Hobbit. This novel study will explore the journey of Bilbo Baggins as he encounters dragons, trolls, elves, and more. Throughout the study, students will engage in read-aloud sessions, discussions, vocabulary activities, and projects designed to deepen their understanding of the text and its themes. There will be short quizzes after each chapter will help reinforce understanding and keep students engaged.

Reading Requirements:

Students are expected to complete required reading at home in preparation for each class session. Fluency in reading and the ability to read independently are essential for this course.

Assistance will be provided to students who may need help with comprehension, ensuring that everyone can participate meaningfully in class discussions and activities.
