

Class Title: Green Blue Living Wax Museum

Teacher Name: Megan VanderHeide

Class Day: Monday

Class Size: 12

Class Cost: $40

Class Fee: $96

Ages or color group served: Green Blue

What level is this class: Level 1

Prerequisites: There isn't any prerequisite, but if your student is just beginning in reading and writing please let me know so I can make sure I am accommodating the levels of the students.

Graduation Requirements: Each student is required to participate in the living wax museum. That will include providing a costume that matches their figure and memorizing/reading 2-3 sentence speech.

Homework Requirements: There will be some parts of this class that need to be completed at home such as costume assembly and purchase and reading/memorizing speech

Class Description:

Students will create their own “Living Wax Museum” by selecting a historical or famous figure, researching, and presenting a live portrayal of that person. This project helps students practice research, writing, public speaking, and creativity while having fun creating costumes.

Note: If a student is still learning or not strong in reading and writing, that is perfectly okay! Students can participate at their own level, and the class will support them through research, speech creation, and presentation with guidance and accommodations as needed.
