v. Old Business Discussion

-Community Center Facility Updates

Circle B construction provided a bid in the amount of $2,875.00 to patch holes, repaint the main area and add a security light outside. Council person Dayna Peavy also suggested having the front and back doors repainted to cover the many scuffs. This will be added to the work order for Circle B Construction. Mayor Coogler motioned to approve the funds to complete this project, Terry Woods seconded the motion, and all council members were in favor.

vi. New Business Discussion

-Repairs for CR 4081

Mayor Coogler is still waiting for the county to provide a quote to have this road fully repaired. Once Mayor Coogler has received the quote, he will call a special meeting to have the funds approved to complete the repairs.

-Community Outreach Events for 2024

The city council would like to host additional outreach events for the year. A tentative date was set for a spring market/ garage sale on April 27th. The council also discussed having another fall and Christmas market in 2024. City Secretary Sarah Coogler is going to reach out to other local businesses to potentially partner in hosting additional markets. The city will charge for booths at all markets and the proceeds will be added to the Christmas sponsorship fund for the 2024 Christmas season.

The city is also going to restart their college scholarship program. Council person Dayna Peavy is going to reach out to the SRHS and Victory Prep to see who a point of contact for these local schools would be for scholarships.
