What is TECA?

- Talents of Endearment Career Accelerator (TECA) is a dynamic platform that enable college students, interns, and graduates to empower business and the future of work.
- TECA help college students and graduates create career and business relevance to become in demand for the future of work and business with lifetime career support; it is business-sector-specific.

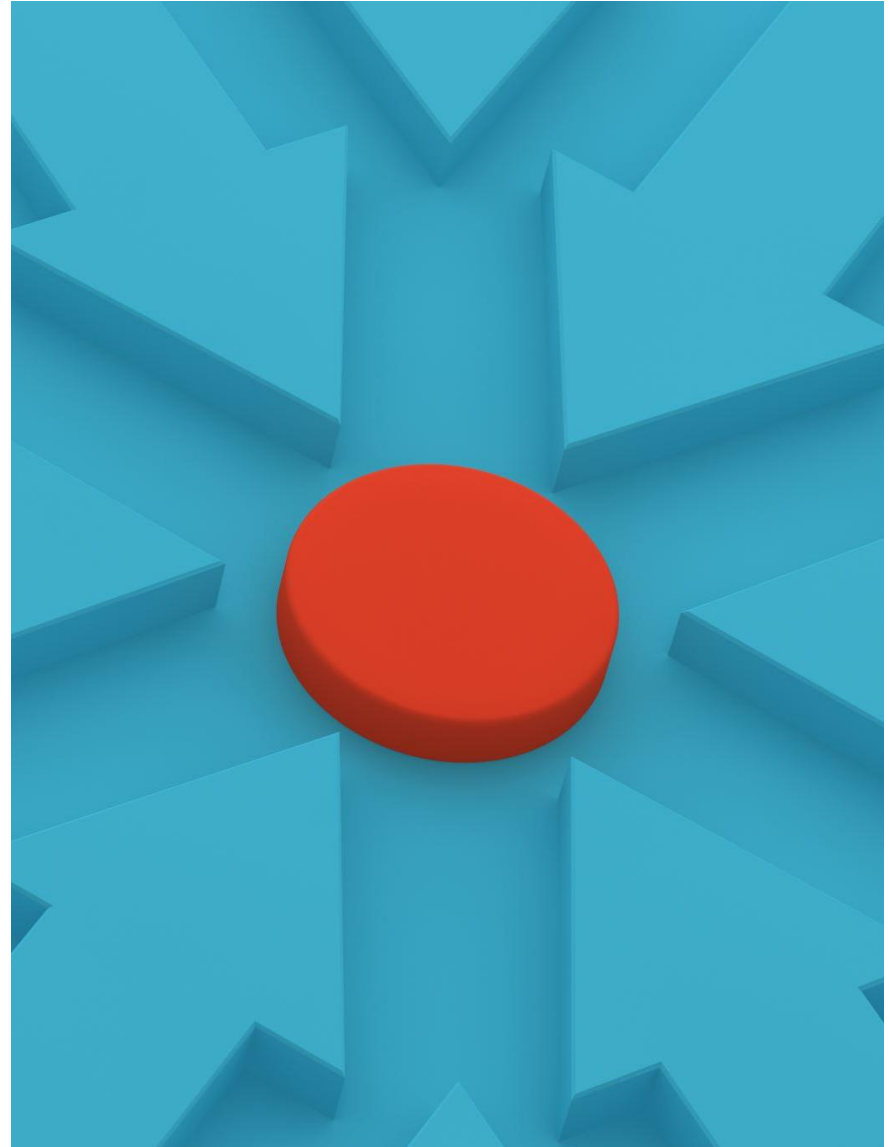

TECA builds new culture - We provide trainees the freedom of time, place, and resources to increase their productivity; and through our collaborative omnichannel, trainees will think on multiple dimensions to work and grow exponentially.

TECA builds breadth experience - we show trainees how to connect and work with others who have different skillsets to become capable of working in any business setting anywhere in the world.

TECA prepare trainees for the future of work!

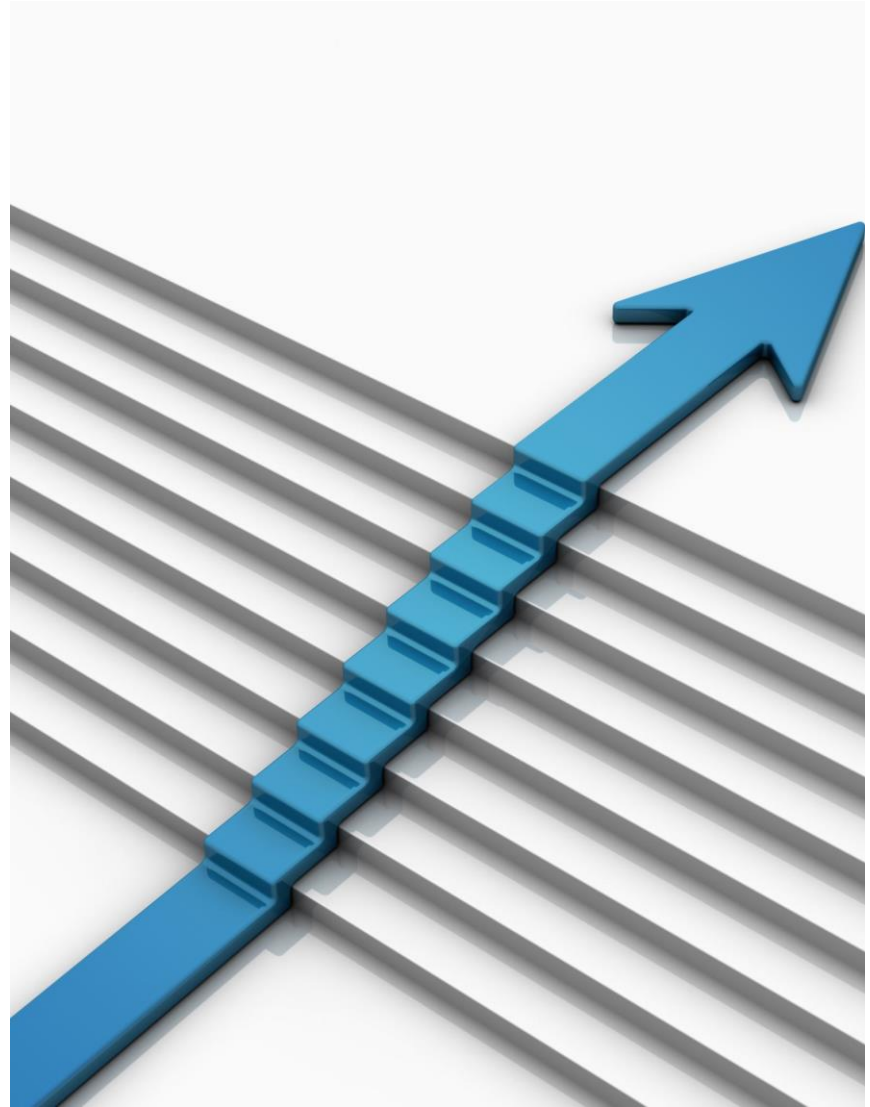

TECA ensures employability!

- TECA' smart training will help match and align trainees with host companies (future employers) and develop experiential learning experience needed by the host company and every other business in the world, NOW.
- We help trainees discover and build innovative ideas and solve real-case business challenges. With these new skillsets, trainees will be able to show their future employer, with confidence, what they can do for their business with their new learned experience.

Live-case projects!

Through TECA live training, we help trainees customize their live-case projects to build their subject related experiential learning experience from the comfort of wherever they are in the world, online and hybrid in some countries.

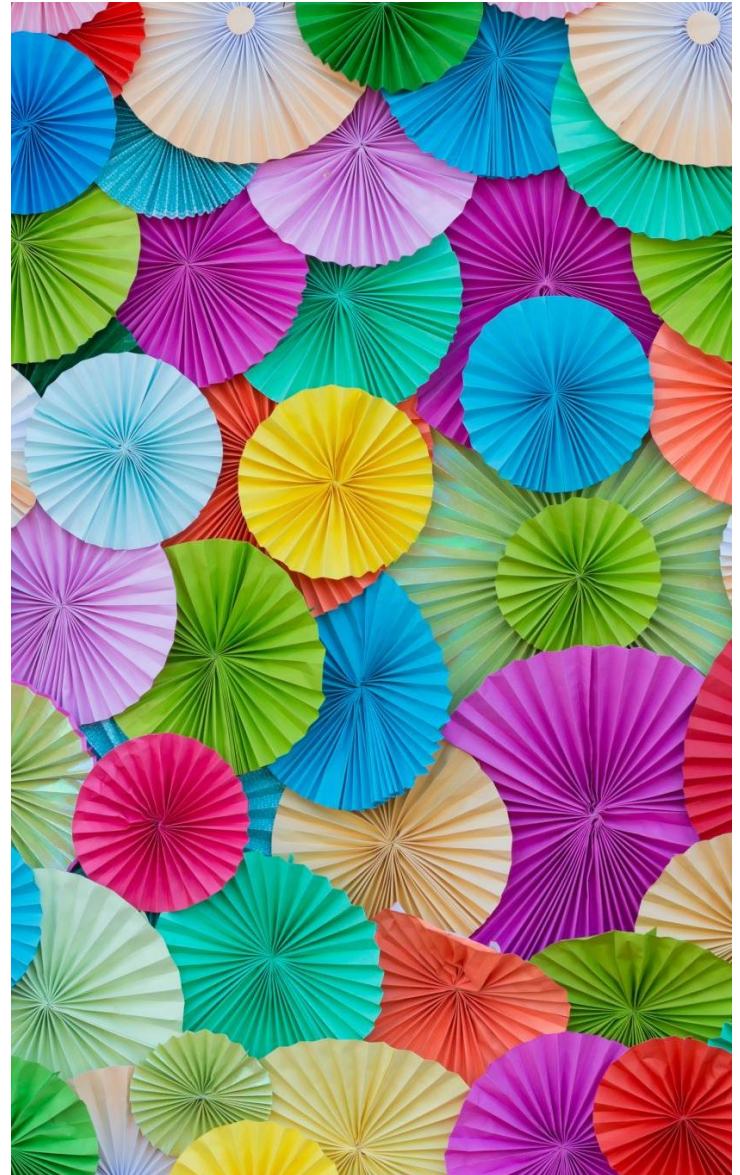

Value to College Graduates!

Through TECA and global community support, college graduates will discover the art of:

- Building relationships.
- Connecting to people and discover their needs.
- Creating engagement opportunities to build business fresh ideas.
- Changing people's lives for the better.
- Transforming people' dreams to reality.
- Creating a long-lasting value relationship to become appealing to community and business.

Powerball Benefits

- Certificate of Completion - Upon successful completion, trainees will receive a Certificate of Completion to show their future employers the experience you have acquired and the value they can bring them.
- Solicit Employment - Upon successful completion, trainees will have a chance to solicit their resumes for employment through the second largest recruitment companies in the world.
- Lifetime career Support - Upon successful completion, trainees will receive lifetime online community support to help them find help whenever needed throughout their career.
- Straight to business - Upon successful completion, trainees will become eligible to join Talents of Endearment Capabilities Center (TECC) and become clients' capabilities professional.
