Standing up to corporate power in Honduras

The People and Planet First campaign is about helping communities stand up to corporate power.

In Honduras, as in much of the Global South, corporations often threaten and criminalize activists who speak up against their abuses.

The Lenca Indigenous leader Víctor Vásquez was imprisoned for fighting the corporate takeover of his people's ancestral territory. Development and Peace's partner, the Honduran Centre for the Promotion of Community Development (CEHPRODEC), helped free him from jail.

Another partner, Caritas Choluteca, trains and accompanies community leaders in advocating for policies that respect human rights and the environment. Recently, they got mayoral election candidates to undertake to declare the municipality of Orocuina a mining-free zone if elected.

Read more about these people's victories in our Mini-magazine at devp.org/lent/resources.

"Thank you for supporting us; we will support you!"

Positively, Thunder Bay.

"Lent is a favourable time to seek out – and not to avoid – those in need; to reach out – and not to ignore – those who need a sympathetic ear and a good word; to visit – and not to abandon – those who are lonely. Let us put into practice our call to do good to all, and take time to love the poor and needy, those abandoned and rejected, those discriminated against and marginalized."

March 26th & 27th – 4th Sunday in Lent

Dear parishioners,

Today's gospel about the merciful father and his two self-centered sons is one of the best loved stories in the scriptures. The younger, a wastrel, tells us something about greed and its consequences but also about the virtues of humility and repentance. The elder, a complainer, speaks multitudes about human nature and how easily envy, jealousy and resentment arise when other people are treated well.

The star of the show is the father who welcomes his younger son home without a word of reproach or recrimination. Irrespective of what has happened, the father cannot change the one basic fact of the case; his son is still his son and he will always be received with open arms.

The father in the story is someone whose love never changes and is present all the time as much when the son goes off as when he returns or if one allows pride to sneak into his or her heart. The actions of both sons in the gospel story tells us something about the gracious goodness of God- His warmth with sinners and the length of His merciful arm. His love for us remains; He is always willing to forgive.

Lent is a time for growing in an appreciation of the beautiful and comforting truth that every person has a place in the heart of God. Lent is an opportunity to know that our ever-loving Father Who, even after our most stupid mistakes and tragic sins, is always ready to welcome us with open arms.

Through faith in Jesus and unity with Him in Baptism, we have been reconciled with God and so with confident of God's reconciling love, we take to heart that the gospel tells us what coming home to God is really like.
