Base Price is $3,400.00 Vulcan or Defender

The base price includes the following finishes, brushed finish, satin finish or Black Nitride finish. Prices for PVD/DLC Finishes vary based on what gets coated, In General a complete gun would run between $350 & $500 for one color. & $500.00 to $600 for two colors. The Minimum charge is 275.00 per color. These prices are set by the coating facility.

Polished Finishes are $150.00 for Frame, $200 for Slide, $350 for a complete gun.

The Polished finish may have some very minor scratches; we sand to 1000 Grit and then Polish.

Trigger Setup.

Please indicate the style and trigger release you would like on your firearm.

You must read and sign the statement below regardless of what trigger release you choose.

This firearm is delivered as a custom firearm, the trigger pull/release can be adjusted from 2lbs to 8lbs. A trigger release of 5lbs or less is considered a competition trigger release, competition triggers are insanely light for a reason, you're using it for maximum efficiency under very limited stress in a highly controlled and predictable environment. Combat or duty carry firearm triggers aren't light for a reason. When you need them, you're a ragging mess of nerves and mistakes that hopefully your training can overcome. You and you alone are responsible for determining what type of firearm and what options you require or want.
