News from Mrs. Forte

I can't believe we're just a week away from Christmas break. This year has been so busy and is going by so quickly! Next Wednesday is our Christmas program. The students and their teachers have been working hard to put on a fantastic performance!

When we get back from break, we will be busy preparing for Catholic Schools Week and the annual basketball tournament. The tournament will be held at Los Banos High School on January 11-12. Be sure to check this week's folder for tournament drive thru tickets. The dinner will be held on January 21. Each family is required to sell three dinner tickets. The Catholic Schools Week schedule will be as follows:

- Sunday, 1/26/10—Catholic Schools Mass (this is a school day!)
- Monday, 1/27/20—Community Day
- Tuesday, 1/28/20—Career Day
- Wednesday, 1/29/20—Grandparents Day
- Thursday, 1/30/20—Student Day/Talent Show (Non-uniform dress for students)
- Friday, 1/31/20—Parents Day

There is an art show the whole week of Catholic Schools Week. Christmas break would be a great time for your children to create a masterpiece for the show!

The Advent wreath contains 4 candles. All of the candles are purple except the third (which is rose). The symbolic meanings of the candles can vary but they are often:

1. Hope — expectation of what is to come and sometimes prophecy
2. Love — sometimes called the Bethlehem Candle
3. Joy — this rose candle is often called Mary's Candle
4. Peace — it can often be called the Angel's Candle

I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.
