

Employee Healthcare Options at Age 65...

When Medicare Meets the Group Health Plan!

Healthcare is a high priority benefit for the growing number of older employees in today's workforce. Beginning at age 65, these employees face specific- and often complex- challenges navigating the impact of Medicare-eligibility on their Group Health Plan benefits.

The Turning 65 Workshop has created two focused webinar options specifically for HR & Benefits teams that covers this need-to-know information. Available in either a 60 or 90-minute format, participants receive targeted and practical guidance on this critical healthcare topic- delivered in an understandable, engaging, and fast-paced virtual format!

Medicare Basics... a Primer on the Essentials
The Impact of Medicare Secondary Payer
Group-to-Medicare Pathways for Age 65+ Employees
Navigating the Medicare Enrollment Process
Caution! High-Income Surcharges, HSAs, COBRA
Case Studies: Unique Enrollment Challenges*

* 90-minute version only

I highly recommend this program for HR or benefits professionals! It's a great overview of the complexities of how Medicare interacts with Group Health Benefits. Thanks for these insights!

Sharon Hinckley, SPHR, SHRM-SCP | Peak Collaborative Group

Presented by Thomas Wright, a former long-time financial advisor and creator of the Turning 65 Workshop. Tom has extensive education experience with human resources, insurance, and banking professionals. He's well known for communicating complex financial information understandably.

The Turning 65 Workshop is an Approved Provider for SHRM, HRCI, and World at Work