

Thomas Wright

Meetings & Conference Presentations

The Aging Workforce Encounters Social Security and Medicare.

Issues surrounding the aging workforce are of growing importance in today's business environment. For older employees, understanding the foundational benefits of Medicare & Social Security is a high-priority. Tom's fast-paced, engaging 60-minute presentations cover the highlights of these programs, and along the way explores key filing decisions.

This is an important and very timely topic that always generates a big turnout!

Now for Virtual Audiences!

"Great program. Members loved it. Highly recommended!"

CPA Summer Session, Saint Joseph's College (Maine)

"Outstanding! Lots of interest. We're bringing Tom back next year."

Professionals in Human Resources Association, Pasadena, CA

"This breakout session was one of our best. Got a standing ovation!"

Vermont SHRM Annual Conference

Tom Wright was a benefits broker and consultant for over 30 years. In 2016, he created the Turning 65 Workshop to bring Medicare & Social Security learning programs to the workplace, including professional training for HR and Benefits teams. He's been quoted in Kiplinger's and Fortune magazines, the Boston Globe, and interviewed on a number of radio & TV programs. Tom's spoken to audiences from Los Angeles to Miami to Caribou, Maine and is well-known for his ability to communicate complex financial information in ways regular people understand.

tom-wright-employee-learning | 207.846.6138 | tom@turning65workshop.com