Essay Prompt: "The Hidden Door in the School Library"

 Summarize

One day, while at school, you discover a hidden door in a corner of the school library that you've never noticed before. Curiosity gets the better of you, and you decide to explore what lies beyond it. Write a story about your adventure.

Include the following elements in your story:

1. Discovery: Describe how you come across the hidden door. What were you doing in the library? What makes you notice the door?
2. The Decision to Enter: Share your thoughts and feelings about deciding whether to go through the door. What are your fears, excitements, or concerns?
3. The World Beyond: Once you step through, where do you find yourself? Is it a different world, a secret room, or a passage to a mysterious place? Describe it in detail.
4. The Challenge: Introduce a challenge or problem you face in this new place. How do you plan to overcome it? Are there any friends, teachers, or magical creatures that help you?
5. The Lesson Learned: What important lesson do you learn during your adventure? How does this experience change your perspective on school, learning, or life?
6. Returning Home: How and why do you return to the regular world? What feelings do you have about leaving the world behind the door?
7. Keeping the Secret: Do you tell anyone about your discovery, or do you keep it a secret? Explain your decision.

This essay prompt encourages students to blend fantasy with a familiar setting, sparking creativity and imaginative thinking. It allows them to explore themes of curiosity, bravery, and the importance of knowledge, all within the bounds of an adventurous narrative.

Essay Prompt: "Social Media and Its Influence on Youth in Australia"

In recent years, the rise of social media has significantly influenced various aspects of life, including the behavior of young people. There is a growing concern about the potential link between social media usage and the increase in youth crime rates in Australia. Write a persuasive essay exploring how social media might be contributing to this issue.

Your essay should include the following points:

- 1. Introduction: Introduce the topic of social media's influence on youth behavior, specifically focusing on crime in Australia. Clearly state your thesis on whether you believe social media has a significant impact on youth crime.
- 2. Background Information: Provide some context on the current state of youth crime in Australia. Include statistics or recent reports to illustrate the trend of youth crime in the country.
- 3. Social Media's Role: Discuss how social media might influence young people's behavior negatively, potentially leading to criminal activities. Consider aspects like peer pressure, exposure to inappropriate content, glorification of criminal behavior, and cyberbullying.
- 4. Counterarguments: Acknowledge potential arguments against your stance, such as the benefits of social media for youth, including community building, information sharing, and social support. Explain why these benefits do not outweigh the negative impacts in the context of youth crime.
- 5. Case Studies or Examples: Incorporate any relevant Australian case studies, examples, or incidents that demonstrate the relationship between social media usage and youth crime.
- 6. Your Perspective: Elaborate on your viewpoint with supporting arguments. Use research, studies, or credible sources to back up your claims.
- 7. Conclusion: Conclude by summarizing your main points and restating your thesis. Emphasize the significance of addressing the influence of social media on youth crime and suggest potential measures or solutions.
