

YOUTH SYMPOSIUM

EXPLORING COMMUNITY-DRIVEN SYSTEMS CHANGE FOR BLACK & RACIALIZED YOUTH IN OTTAWA

THIS EVENT IS OPEN TO YOUTH, SERVICE PROVIDERS AND SYSTEM PLAYERS WHO ARE INTERESTED IN SOCIAL JUSTICE AND SYSTEMS CHANGE

ABOUT THE EVENT

The CCYN is hosting a shared forum that centers the experiences, skills and visions of Black & racialized youth in Ottawa, with the goal of sparking a community-driven local strategy for addressing and responding to the needs and wellbeing of young people.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

- THE STATE OF BLACK & INDIGENOUS YOUTH IN ONTARIO
A presentation of the Laidlaw Foundation's 2023 Report
- PANEL DISCUSSIONS
Youth Panel: Panelists discuss need for greater community, family and cultural connections, mental health supports, financial and career supports, wraparound services
Systems Panel: Panelists will engage in a discussion on the roles of education, child welfare, employment, housing, justice, health, economic, intersectionality, poverty and mental health in developing a community of practice
- KEY NOTE SPEAKER
As a community, what do we want to see?
Setting the stage for where we go from here.

WEDNESDAY
JUNE 5TH, 2024

10:30am-2:30pm

Bayview Yards, 7 Bayview Station
Lunch provided

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

DR. KRISTA EDWARDS

LIMITED SPACE: REGISTER NOW!

