

Gibson County Living

a publication of the Gibson County Museum of History and Culture

From Roots to Horizons: Gibson County Living is the only local feature magazine in the county brought to you by local writers, about local people, places, and events, past, present, and future.

Distribution-

Mailed to nearly all of Gibson County households for FREE
Online as a digital flipbook at no extra charge

The Numbers

14,500 mailed to Gibson County homes & businesses
14,800 printed twice a year

Single Copy Locations

South Gibson -

Ft. Branch R'z Cafe and Catering
Haubstadt Log Inn, Carriage Inn, Holiday Foods
Owensville Rexing Butcher Shoppe, Holder's Furniture

East Gibson

Denny's, IGA, Oakland City Library

North Gibson

Gibson County Chamber of Commerce, The Palace Cafe, Dick Clark's Family Restaurant, Bob Evans, First Bank, Susan Bobe's Pizza, Klinker's Hometown Bar & Grill, Hampton Inn, Holiday Inn Express, Liberty Credit Union, Shelter Insurance, Walker's Hometown Store, Springs Valley Bank & Trust, Old National Bank, Deaconess Gibson Hospital, Red Dawn Armory, Save-A-lot Food Store, Sullivan's Diner in Union

Mt. Carmel

BuyLow, Fastbreak, Wabash General Hospital and Alka Family Chiropractic

See our website at www.gibsoncountyliving.com

Brought to you by:-

Gibson County Museum of History and Culture

PO Box 108

Princeton, IN 47670

Contact: Jancey Smith or Jennifer MacKay: office@gcmhc.org

Deadlines

April issue: March 2nd

October issue: September 2nd

Printed 01/22/2026