

English Verb Tenses — Active & Passive

TENSE		Active	Passive
Past		I lived in Canada.	I was bitten by a dog.
Present		I live in Canada.	I am bitten by a dog.
Future		I will live in Canada.	I will be bitten by a dog.
Past	CONTINUOUS	I was living in Canada.	I was being bitten by a dog.
Present		I am living in Canada.	I am being bitten by a dog.
Future		I will be living in Canada.	I will be being bitten by a dog.
Past	PERFECT	I had lived in Canada.	I had been bitten by a dog.
Present		I have lived in Canada.	I have been bitten by a dog.
Future		I will have lived in Canada.	I will have been bitten by a dog.
Past	PERFECTS	I had been living in Canada.	Bikes had been being fixed by him.
Present		I have been living in Canada.	Bikes have been being fixed by him.
Future		I will have been living in Canada.	Bikes will have been being fixed by him.