

Photograph obtained in Madame Ruby's trailer by Mikey on 11/5/18. Also, included are Ruby's notes about the Tarot reading.

"The one who pursues me comes like leo, full of hunger. It roams to and fro, searching for my scent. Twice toward the east the lion runs, then down to the cool springs for a drink to quench his thirst before blood is spilled. Now, east again leo runs, encountering the ram and frightening it away. The ram is no match for the lion. The beast changes course and heads north until it encounters one of its kind. Then, catching my scent it heads twice west before growing angry because it loses the trail. It stops and waits for the wind to carry my scent again."

Where did the lion stop?
