

Sincerely (2024)

I know it might sound silly but I mean it all sincerely
I can't help myself my mind is on the run
It's me, myself, and I at the root of all my problems
Pointing fingers at each other just for fun
I sang along to every song on my way back to Kentucky
With the windows down at the top of my lungs
I know it doesn't matter now, but I just can't remember how
I ever thought that you would be the one

And oooohh it seems so clear to me
Looking back
I never thought I'd make the same mistakes like that
But I did

Now we're looking back, telling jokes, wondering where the time all goes
We'll never get back where we are today
Share a thought, pass the time
Pass it back we'll share the wine
One day we'll look back and we'll say

That oooohhh it seems so clear to me
I was wrong
Never thought I'd see the day, but I moved on
Now I'm gone

We used to say maybe one of these days
Til one of these day are all yesterdays
I've seen it before now I see it so clearly
I'll say it again this time more sincerely

And I know it might sound silly but I mean it all sincerely
I can't help myself my mind is on the run
It's me, myself, and I at the root of all my problems
Pointing fingers at each other just for fun

I sang along to every song on my way back to Kentucky
With the windows down at the top of my lungs
I know it doesn't matter now, but I just can't remember how
I ever thought that you would be the one
