

April 2025

So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have. I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of this body, because I know that I will soon put it aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

BE A RESPONSIBLE PET OWNER!

Here's a reminder to all of our residents that have a pet. Please make sure you are cleaning up after your pet! Especially in shared areas of the grounds, or while out walking with your pet. It's YOUR responsibility for cleaning up your pet's waste. The mowers will soon be coming out to mow, and we are not responsible for cleaning up your pet's messes. Make sure you bag it and throw it in the garbage cans, or the pet waste deposit.

Thank you!

April 2025

What a Glorious Day it was when Jesus rose and conquered the grave! Human life has changed forever! He is there from our first breath until our last breath of natural life and now, because He lives, He is there for our first spiritual breath of life and to top it off, He said, He will be with us always even, to the end of the ages. Oh, what a glorious day!

First Breath of Life

As tears of love begin flowing down the faces of those awaiting the birth of a child, a light unseen by human eyes begins to fill the room. The very presence of God the Father has begun to descend. All of Heaven stands in silence, awaiting the first breath of life to come from this little one.

Angels of great stature begin descending, entering the room in preparation of the presence of God the Father, Jesus the Son and the Holy Spirit. They wonder, "Which of us will it be?"

As God the Father enters the room with Jesus the Son by His side, the child takes its first breath. God the Father looks among the angels and asks, "Which of you will it be that will take charge of this little one of Mine?" All heads are bowed in Holy reverence. An angel steps forward, one of Warrior status, and answers, "I will." God the Father speaks to the angel saying, "You will continually behold My face regarding this child." The angel nods in understanding.

God the Father then speaks saying, "My Holy spirit will draw the child close to Me and will teach the child all things I have spoken in My Word and shall comfort the child whenever it is needed."

Jesus the Son then walks over to the child and says, "I am He who was dead but now I am alive." "I shed My blood for forgiveness of sins you've not yet committed." "I bare the stripes that can heal you," "I gave My life so that we could be together always." "I love you, and I will never forsake you, and when the time is right, the Holy Spirit will begin to tug at your heart about Me and bring to remembrance all things I am speaking to you today, and you will begin to seek Me, and my child, you will find Me." Jesus bends down and kisses the new child on the forehead.

The Angel took its position. God the Father oversees all these things, and records them in a book, and begins His ascent toward Heaven.

As Jesus the Son begins His ascent toward Heaven, He glances over His shoulder at the new child and with deep love says, "Remember child, I am with you always, even to the end" ...

"Oh, what a glorious day!"

"Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world."

"Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them."
