

Women in Aviation Gulf Coast Chapter is proud to announce collaboration with Pensacola Air Flight School to offer one deserving student a chance to pursue their aviation goals in becoming a pilot.

This scholarship can be used for any rating. Funds are to be used at Pensacola Air Flight School.

Details and Requirements

- Two recommendation letters
- Must be a member of Women in Aviation and you can obtain membership by going to wai.org
- Typed one page essay following the essay description below

Descriptive essay should address the following:

- Name and contact information
- What motivated you to pursue aviation
- Short-term, mid-term, and long-range goals
- How the scholarship will help you achieve your objective
- If you receive this scholarship, what will you do to give back to the aviation community?

Scholarship applications are due September 1, 2022 and can be email to waigulfcoastchapter@gmail.com