*Vision is the art of seeing things invisible.
(Jonathan Swift)*

He explores the intersection between art and mathematics. He graduated from the famous Academy of Fine Arts in Bologna. His works have appeared in theatre and music. He is represented by galleries in Venice, Ferrara, Rome, and New York.

Paintings with vivid tribal energy reflected in color and deep perspective structures. Expressive power and compositional harmony come from the careful study of compositional structures taking shape in this original scientific symbolism based on mathematical calculation. Imperceptible symmetries narrate to us the energy of these subjects.
