

Presence and Media Recognition

This document offers a visual sample of Oxford Numerology University®'s growing media visibility, public engagement, and educational presence. It reflects the work of our faculty, students, and leadership team in bringing numerology into public dialogue through interviews, conferences, social media, publications, and community events.

These selected highlights illustrate the dynamic relationship between numerological research, applied education, and real-world impact. They are part of our ongoing mission to make numerology accessible, credible, and socially relevant in the 21st century.
