INGREDIENT DETAILS

Please provide a list of your current ingredients and any additional ingredients you would like me to use. I will incorporate as many as possible and provide sourcing information for items not on your list that may be needed to balance the formulation. Keep in mind that I may not be able to use every ingredient, as some may not work well together nutritionally. Additionally, factors like cost and availability of ingredients are beyond my control, and I cannot guarantee their affordability or consistent availability. These are uncontrollable factors. *

For nutrients such as Zinc and Manganese, I formulate with Oysters and Mussels. I can formulate with bio-available supplements if seafood is not desired.

Do you prefer Oysters or Ionic Zinc? Please select one as they are not interchangeable and cannot be substituted. *

Substitution Information (There are NO Subs)

Each recipe is formulated to meet a dog's unique needs according to canine nutrition guidelines, requiring precise nutrition. Substitutions are not possible without affecting nutrient balance, except for certain ingredients like eggs and various fruits and vegetables. Reformulations are not included with any formulation project. Please check the box to confirm that you understand there are no substitutions or adjustments beyond what is specified. *

I understand there are no substitutions/adjustments beyond what is specified and I am agreeing to this policy.

Liability Waiver

Before proceeding with our pet nutritionist consultation and recipe formulation services, please carefully read and acknowledge the following disclaimer:

- 1. Consultation Purpose: Our services aim to provide guidance and recommendations for your pet's nutritional needs based on the information provided by you. However, these services are not a substitute for professional veterinary advice, diagnosis, or treatment.
- 2. Individual Considerations: The recommendations and recipes provided during the consultation are formulated based on the information you provide about your pet's age, breed, weight, health status, and dietary preferences. However, individual pets may have unique nutritional requirements and sensitivities. We cannot guarantee the suitability of the recommendations for every pet and recommend monitoring your pet's response closely.
- 3. Nutritional Disclaimer: While we strive to offer accurate and up-to-date nutritional advice, the field of pet nutrition is constantly evolving. Our recommendations are based on current knowledge and research but may not reflect the most recent findings or developments. We encourage you to stay informed about advancements in pet nutrition and consult with us for updates or changes to your pet's diet.
- 4. Ingredient Sensitivities and Allergies: It is essential to disclose any known allergies, sensitivities, or adverse reactions your pet may have to specific ingredients. While we make every effort to avoid common allergens in our recipe formulations, we cannot guarantee the absence of cross-contamination or inadvertent inclusion of allergens. You are responsible for reviewing the ingredients and ensuring they are suitable for your pet's dietary needs.
- 5. Assumption of Risk: By utilizing our consultation and recipe formulation services, you acknowledge and accept the inherent risks associated with making dietary changes for your pet. These risks include but are not limited to allergic reactions, digestive upset, and changes in health status. You agree to assume full responsibility for any consequences that may arise from implementing our recommendations.

6. Liability Waiver: We disclaim any liability for damages, losses, or injuries resulting from the use or misuse of the information, recommendations, or recipes provided during the consultation. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless our pet nutritionist and affiliated parties from any claims, damages, or expenses arising from your use of our services.

7. Continued Veterinary Care: Our services are intended to complement, not replace, regular veterinary care for your pet. We strongly recommend maintaining ongoing veterinary check-ups to monitor your pet's health and address any concerns promptly. By proceeding with our pet nutritionist consultation and recipe formulation services, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to the terms of this disclaimer. If you have any questions or concerns, please discuss them with us before proceeding. Thank you for entrusting us with your pet's nutritional well-being. Your service request will be processed within 3-5 business days. *
