Wednesday—Car Painting

What you need

- Plastic cars or any toy cars you don't mind getting covered in paint
- A long roll of white paper (available on Amazon or most craft stores)
- Paint, a few colours
- An outdoor space, ideally a pavement or patio
- Sellotape
- A slide, optional

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Try to set this up before your children want to play with it. Not always possible but it means they can just get stuck in immediately.
2. Decide whether you will be using a slide or not. If you aren't using one, find a couple of meters of pavement or clear patio to use. Roll out your white paper and sellotape down the ends.
3. If you are using a slide, start at the top of the slide with your paper. Sellotape it down and then roll it down your slide and on to the paving stones and sellotape that end down too. Make sure to roll out the paper at least a couple of metres.
4. Squirt some paint all over the paper. Space it out. It is up to you whether you want to put more the one colour on at once.
5. Once the paint is on you can leave your children to experiment. If they need some help to begin with, show them what to do by zooming a car down the slide or across the pavement. Talk about how you can see the car tracks as it hits the paint and drags it across the surface of the paper.

Thursday— Bus

Can you cut out the buss, give it some wheels, colour it in and add some passengers?

Where will your bus go? How many passengers have you got?

Friday—Rubbish Truck!

Can you cut out some pictures from a magazine or news paper and fill your rubbish truck!

Alliteration Home Learning Challenge

Zoe

the Zookeeper wanted to name some of her animals.

the same letter sound as the animal.

So far she has thought of Charlie Chimp and Tommy Tiger. Can you help her think of some names for her Lion, Snake and

Charlotte the Chef

sound soups! Each soup needs 3 ingredients that start with the same letter sound. She has already made the 't' sound soup with toffees, tomatoes and toast! Can you think of 3 foods to put in the 'c'

Go on a letter sound hunt! Look around at
