

About Kutsab Ternga

Kutsab Ternga Temple was established by the great yogi, Lungten Urgen Palsang Rinpoche, and formally inaugurated by his master in the 15th century.

In Tibetan, "Kutsab" refers to the representative of the body (i.e. the body of Guru Rinpoche). "Ter" means precious treasure and "Nga" means five.

The 5 representative treasures consist of :

- The statue of Guru Rinpoche (Guru Thongwa Donden) - this statue was made by Yeshe Tsogyal and consecrated by Guru Rinpoche himself
- The wrathful statue of Guru Rinpoche (Guru Dorje Drolo)
- The statue of Dakini Yeshe Tsogyal
- The dhagam (cloak) of Guru Rinpoche
- One of Guru Rinpoche's shoes

COMPLETING KUTSAB TERNGA TEMPLE PROJECT

The original Kutsab Ternga Temple dates back to the 15th century. Located in Jomsom, that is the center of Gharap Zong rural municipality in Mustang, Nepal, it is a very sacred place for Buddhists as it contains Kutsab Ternga (Five Treasures) related to Guru Rinpoche Padmasambhava.

The first Shangpa Rinpoche restored it in 1954. In 2001, the second Shangpa Rinpoche visited the temple. At the earnest requests of the Lamas and villagers to rebuild the temple, Rinpoche agreed and began fund raising for this notable work in 2018.

Over the last four years, much work has been done despite several major unforeseen circumstances in the world. We are happy to share that the first phase of this Kutsab Ternga Temple project is about 70% completed due to your overwhelming support.

Thank you very much for your help all these years. Your act of giving out of compassion is dependent not on the amount but rather the attitude that comes with your practice of generosity - one of the Perfections (Paramitas) of Buddhism.

In phase two of this project, we are taking major steps to develop the whole area with stupas, prayer wheels and landscaping to create a peaceful atmosphere for all pilgrims and visitors. We pray that we can complete this project smoothly so that the Buddha Dharma can benefit more people.

If you would like to continue supporting the Kutsab Ternga Temple project and see it to its fruition, kindly contact Shangpa Foundation or Karma Kagyud Buddhist Centre Singapore.

With your unwavering support, together we can complete these Buddha Dharma activities triumphantly. May your meritorious deeds bring to you worldly and especially spiritual benefits. Thank you very much.

*Yours sincerely
Shangpa Rinpoche*
