

CHECKLIST FOR THE "UNDECIDED" STUDENT

Questions to ask:

- What do I love learning about?
- What type of environment do I picture myself working in? -or- not working in?
- Where are my strengths/interests?
- What do people tell me I'm good at?
- What knowledge and skills are needed for the type of environment in which I'm interested?
- What or who will help me explore and obtain this knowledge and skill?

Research to do:

- Research the most in-demand careers and majors
- Research the earning potential of potential careers
- Research education needs- program length and costs
- Take an online assessment - this is a great way to get a list of college majors and careers that correlate with your skills.
