I come today as one of the people of Michigan as seen in the Michigan constitution Article 1 section 1 sui juris and provide notice that you may take due care.

1 Political power. Sec. 1. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal benefit, security and protection.

3 Assembly, consultation, instruction, petition. Sec. 3. The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

Please take notice that the township is currently constituted to hold elections for treasurer and that this election is mandatory. There is no grant of constitutional authority for an appointment to this office.

Article 7 Township officers; term, powers and duties. Sec. 18. In each organized township there shall be elected for terms of not less than two nor more than four years as prescribed by law a supervisor, a clerk, a treasurer, and not to exceed four trustees, whose legislative and administrative powers and duties shall be provided by law.

Article 2 Time of elections. Sec. 5. Except for special elections to fill vacancies, or as otherwise provided in this constitution, all elections for national, state, county and township offices shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each even-numbered year or on such other date as members of the congress of the United States are regularly elected.

Please take notice that you must show any article in the constitution where a village is granted authority to supersede a constitutional mandate.

Article 7 Townships; corporate character, powers and immunities. Sec. 17. Each organized township shall be a body corporate with powers and immunities provided by law.

Article 7 Townships, dissolution; villages as cities. Sec. 20. The legislature shall provide by law for the dissolution of township government whenever all the territory of an organized township is included within the boundaries of a village or villages notwithstanding that a village may include territory within another organized township and provide by law for the classification of such village or villages as cities.

Article 7 Charters, resolutions, ordinances; enumeration of powers. Sec. 22. Under general laws the electors of each city and village shall have the power and authority to frame, adopt and amend its charter, and to amend an existing charter of the city or village heretofore granted or enacted by the legislature for the government of the city or village. Each such city and village shall have power to adopt resolutions and ordinances relating to its municipal concerns, property and government, subject to the constitution and law. No enumeration of powers granted to cities and villages in this constitution shall limit or restrict the general grant of authority conferred by this section.

Please take notice that if you cannot show a constitutional mandate to override section 18 above you will be exceeding your granted authority within your contract and trust indenture with people of Michigan and will be considered to be warring with the trust you swore to uphold.

Please take notice that a violation of the people’s rights is a self-executing cause of action and the people may bring suit to remove you from your office.

Article 7 Removal of elected officers. Sec. 33. Any elected officer of a political subdivision may be removed from office in the manner and for the causes provided by law.
