

Laundry

by Andrea Slip

Nothing much happens as Andrea folds her pretty slips and panties to put away in her lingerie draw until she gets a surprise.

Andrea loves wearing a pretty dress, and of course pretty nylon lingerie and stockings to go under the pretty dress. You can't tell from a glance whether Andrea is wearing a slip under that dress or if her lingerie is matching, unless you know her really well. If you read on, you will find out, but you must be wearing pretty lingerie as well to fully enjoy all the sensations of the story.

Shoes are important for Andrea as well, preferably with heels. She feels so sexy wear sheer nylons with her pretty red strappy heels. Andrea particularly loves the way the reinforced toes and heels show so well through the sandals. It looks, in her mind at least, so feminine, showing lots of nylon clad leg.

On this particular day, a Tuesday, Andrea's wife was out at work and she could get on with the chores of folding her laundry. Andrea had chosen to wear a blue dress with pretty red and cream flowers and, of course, some matching cream nylon lingerie underneath.

It is only from behind that it becomes apparent that Andrea is wearing a cream slip. Of course the seams of Andrea's sheer nylons rising straight up from the red rhinestone heels to disappear under the lacy edge of the cream slip reveals Andrea's feminine side. Perhaps it also reveals Andrea's passion (or perhaps that should be fetish) for nylon and the sexual excitement it creates for Andrea when wearing such pretty silky clothes?

Andrea has already folded her lacy bras and suspender belts but we can sneak a look into her bedroom as she folds her nylon slips, panties and stockings. Andrea starts with a large pair of pink French knickers, so pretty, so silky, lots of lace.

Andrea picks up a very silky white full slip, sorts out the shoulder straps and folds it carefully. This is a pale wash. Although it would be nice to be able iron her pretty slips that would be a bit tricky to fit in with family life, so it is easier just to fold them up carefully. After all, who else is going to see Andrea wearing her pretty lingerie, except you.

Oh La-La. This little white waist slip has such pretty lace and as Andrea puts her hand inside the nylon to fold it she realises how see through the thin nylon is. How revealing would this slip be, it would probably show all of her panties, suspenders and stocking tops and, perhaps, more, much more.

Next up is a pale pink full slip. Andrea straitens the slip out as she prepares to fold it. The only problem is that handling all this silky lingerie is beginning to have an effect on Andrea, perhaps you too? Feel free to slip a hand inside your slip and panties to caress that bulge I just know is tenting your nylon lingerie.

It is no good; Andrea just has to wear this pink slip as well. She puts the slip down on the bed and starts to lift her blue dress over her head. If you are quick, you might notice the slip, panties, suspenders, panties, and stocking tops Andrea is already wearing under the dress as she takes it off over her head. Talking about head perhaps you might also notice the bulge in Andrea's panties. Well I did say that handling all this nylon lingerie was having an effect on Andrea in the nicest possible way. Perhaps by dwelling on this moment in time, captured by the camera, you might image what you would do to that bulge in Andrea's nylon panties.

So there we have it. With the blue dress off we see that Andrea is in fact wearing a half slip and bra. If you look closely perhaps you can detect the stocking tops through the thin cream slip.

Andrea picks up the silky pink slip and gets ready to enjoy the sensation of wearing a full slip over the top of a half-slip.

Andrea pulls the pink slip down over her head and over the cream half-slip. Is it a bit weird to want to wear two slips at the same time?

Perhaps it is weird but the pink full slip is quite short and it is possible to see both lacy hems at the same time. Andrea loves how the two silky slips slide over each other so easily, as easy as spreading soft butter on bread.

Andrea feels it would be appropriate to put her blue dress back on, over the pink full slip, to finish sorting the laundry, although the temperature does seem to be rising in the bedroom. Perhaps it is for you as well as you massage that huge tent in your own nylon panties whilst you look at the photos of Andrea in her pretty lingerie.

The full slip Andrea is wearing is made of thin nylon and you can see her bra strap quite clearly through the back of the full slip when she turns her back to slid her dress over her head. Don't you just love seeing the two sets of shoulder straps, bra and full slip together? Andrea does.

Andrea pulls the slip down but manages to ruffle the hems of the two slips so she needs to make some adjustments to pull both slips down correctly. I hope you are not peeping at Andrea's panties and stocking tops as she adjusts her slips? Oh you naughty gurls! Of course, secretly, Andrea hopes you are enjoying the slip show.

There we are, all straight now. Should we tell Andrea that her lacy hem is peeping out from under her dress? Perhaps not, it looks so femme to show a little lace over sheer nylons don't you think? Andrea just loves feeling and looking femme.

So, back to the matter in hand. No not that, I meant folding the laundry of course. Andrea picks up a little pair of white panties. These are really see-through as well. Just imagine if Andrea wore these with that see through white slip we saw earlier, well perhaps you don't need to imagine for too long as I am sure Andrea will wear them together soon.

Here's another pair of panties, this time pale pink French knickers in satin. Andrea loves wearing French knickers; they are so comfortable and so easy to slip a hand inside for a caress of the Crown Jewels. Andrea remembers seeing her Mum wear some pretty navy blue French knickers. They were the first silky nylon lingerie Andrea ever wore when she was a little boy of about 8 years old. Even at that young age she got very excited. From French knickers it progressed to wearing Mum's matching navy blue Charnos waist slip. Andrea is still wearing slips and panties some 50 years later.

Perhaps you are wearing French knickers yourself as you read this story. I hope you are wearing a bra, stockings and a slip as well. If not, go and put them on now before you finish the rest of the story

Of course stockings have to be sorted as well. These stockings are dark brown seamed stockings by Gio, Andrea's favourite brand. Andrea runs the thin sheer nylon through her hands and ties them together, making sure she doesn't cause any ladders to start. She is starting to get excited again and going a bit weak at the knees.

Andrea has to sit down on the bed to finish sorting the lingerie and stockings. The final pair of pink panties is folded and put on the pile.

The final part of laundry is to put the lingerie away in the chest of draws. This might be a bit tricky. As you may have noticed Andrea has a very large collection of nylon lingerie acquired over the last twenty years or so. She opens the draw with the full slips, panties and suspender belts. Should she put the pale slips straight on top of the slips already there? No, she likes to rotate her slips in turn, although it is true she could not resist wearing the pink full slip straight away.

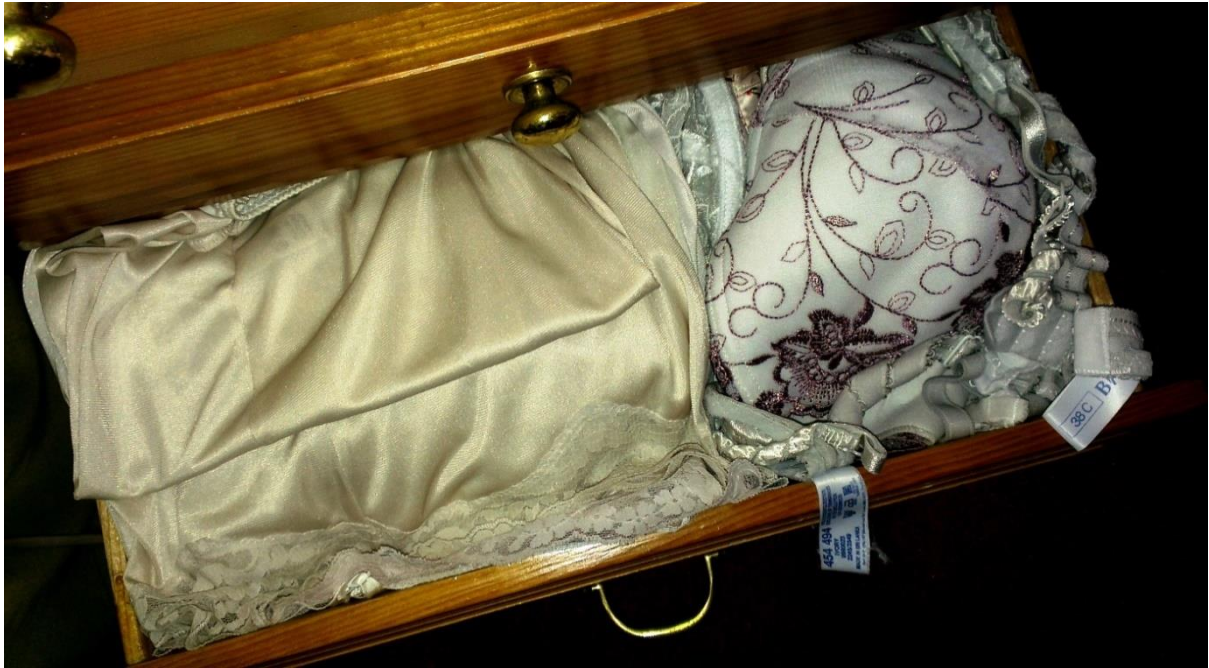

Andrea lifts out some of the full slips already in the draw and puts them on the bed next to the pale slips just washed. There are so many pretty slips here in many different colours; dark blue, pale blue, bubble-gum pink, brown and red spill out onto the bed. They are all full slips, made of silky nylon and with lashings of lace. Andrea really does love slips going right back to wearing her Mum's French knickers and slip. This is not even all of Andrea's full slips, some are put away in a bag in the wardrobe.

Andrea picks up the newly washed pale pink and white full slips off the bed and puts them into the slip draw. The darker slips go in on top, only just though. The draw is bulging with lingerie. Next are the pile of panties, again, it is a tight squeeze to get all the nylon knickers into the draw. Stockings go in a different draw.

The half-slips go in yet another draw with the bras. This is a low draw and Andrea has to squat down to get the slips in the draw.

It is a bit of a tight squeeze, the creamy and white half-slips just about fit in next to the bras.

All this hard work has made Andrea hot and bothered. Perhaps it is time to take off the blue dress and relax on the bed. The full slip rides up a little as she pulls the dress off over her head.

Andrea sits down on the bed; her two slips ride up over her stocking tops.

Andrea stretches her nylon clad legs in front of her, heels still on, and admires her nylon clad pins. The two slips have ridden up not only to reveal her stocking tops but her suspender straps as well. Andrea just cannot resist what you have been doing for some time, and taking care of that tent in her panties.

Andrea has got very excited at handling all these pretty nylon undies. She does have an enormous tent in her pretty panties. She gets off the bed, lifts her two slips, slides down her silky cream panties with the pretty flower pattern on the front and is about to release her cock for all to see when the front door bangs shut.

“Hello darling, I finished work early and thought I would come home and surprise you,” said Andrea’s wife.
