

Sorting Laundry – a photo story by Andrea Slip

Andrea sorts her laundry of pretty lingerie, stockings, and slips, recalling personal moments and photos. Items include satin panties, slips, bras, suspenders, and stockings, often matching and delicate. She separates items for washing, emphasizing care for fragile fabrics. The story highlights her lingerie collection, personal memories, and laundry routine, with a focus on detailed descriptions of clothing and intimate moments.

Andrea loves to wear pretty lingerie, lots of panties, slips and stockings. You may have noticed her photos on Flickr. This means the laundry piles up quickly. Today she needs to sort the laundry and put a load in the washing machine.

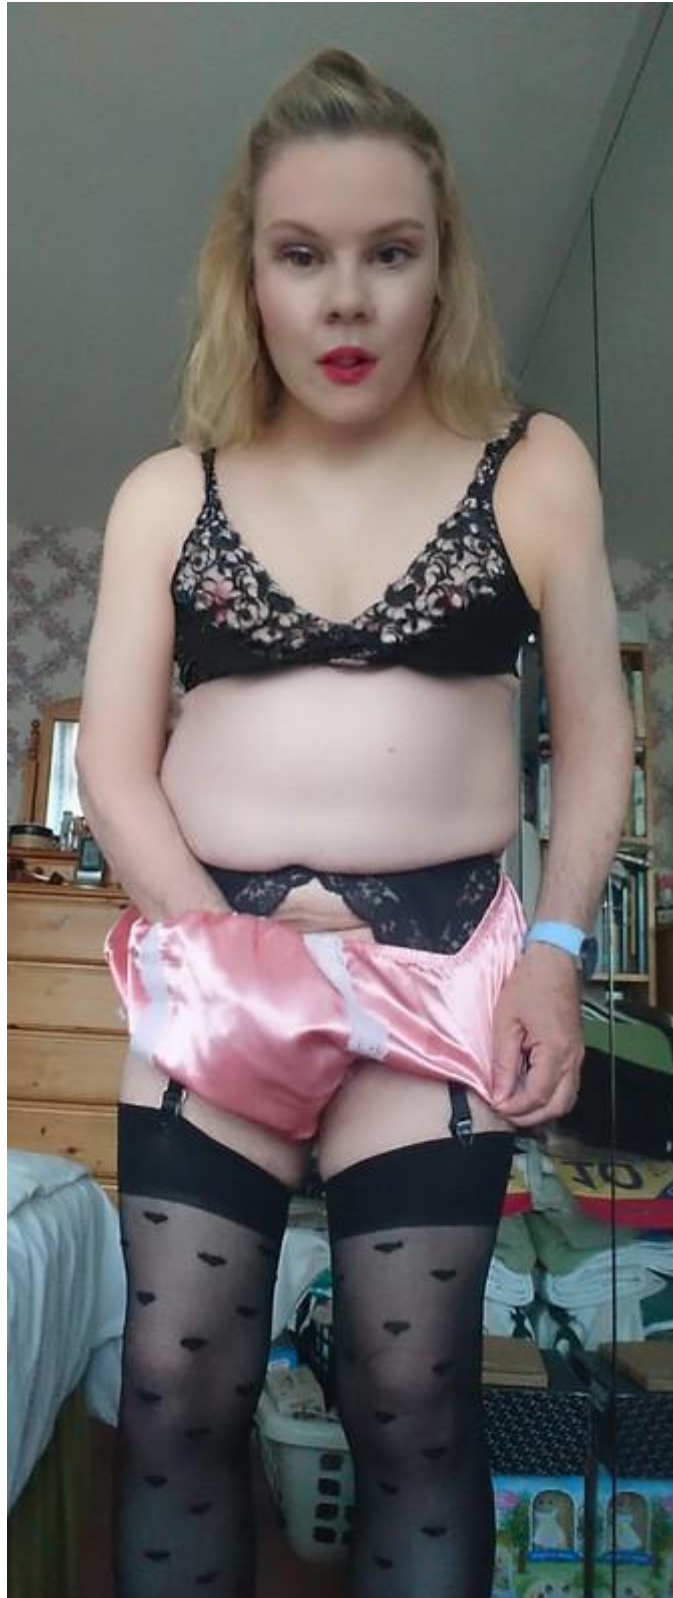

Andrea tips the laundry bag out on the bed. As she sorts through the pretty slips, panties and bras she remembers when she wore that particular item.

First up is a pair of orange satin panties with white lace on the legs and down the front. They really are a very sissy pair of panties or knickers.

The last time Andrea wore these she had on an orange full slip and black stockings under a pink blouse and a flowery skirt. Andrea took a lovely photo as she delicately lifted the skirt and slip to reveal her orange satin panties. Oh God, she was so hard.

Another photo revealed that Andrea had taken off the slip, blouse and skirt to reveal that she was wearing a black lacy bra and matching black lacy suspender belt. The black stockings have love hearts on them. In the photo we can see Andrea with her hand inside the satin orange panties relieving that stiff clitty. She soon made a mess of the panties as she came. They went straight in the laundry bag.

Andrea also remembered that she has a matching orange satin half-slip. This has several rows of white lace. There is a photo of Andrea wearing this slip and panties together with a pink lacy bra, sheer black stockings and pink high heels. What a sissy Andrea looks in his pretty lingerie.

Next laundry item is a full white slip. This will have to go in a separate wash.

Andrea wore this slip under a silky black and white dress with white stockings and black high heeled boots. She felt very sexy with the lacy hem of the slip peeping out from under the dress.

Under the slip Andrea wore a lacy white bra, a new white suspender belt and some very frilly white panties. Sometimes Andy likes to show his real face when wearing frilly lingerie, what a sissy.

Andrea starts to sort the stockings. These are so delicate they must go in a separate mesh bag.

Andrea loves her stocking tops showing under a skirt and lacy slip. There is no doubt that these are stockings and not tights.

These pink lacy top stockings are new from Boux Avenue.

Andrea also bought some lacy pink panties from Boux Avenue, they are quite sheer.

She also bought a pair with yellow lace tops.

They look and feel gorgeous to wear.

Although the Boux Avenue stockings are hold ups, Andrea still likes to wear suspenders. So, there are lots of suspender belts in the dirty laundry.

Here are those yellow topped hold up stockings again but this time Andrea wore a matching cream suspender belt and matching bra set. The suspenders and bra have flecks of yellow that go well with the stockings and the yellow half slip that Andrea wore under her Tour de France outfit in July. The panties were a set of 3 from Shein.

These new panties from Shein are very lacy and very sheer. Andrea bought the yellow ones to replace a favourite pair of lacy yellow panties that appeared in the Justine series.

In this part of Nephew to Niece, Dawn discovers her cum stained panties in the wash as she starts to undress after getting home from work. She goes to confront her son Justin about the messy panties. She does not worry about Justin seeing her in her yellow lacy panties, cream suspenders, and seamed sheer black stockings. Dawn sends him off to stay with a colleague Sophie to stop him wearing her panties.

Next Andrea picks up a blue pair of French knickers but then drops the slippery panties on the carpet.

She bends down to retrieve the French knickers giving readers a nice upskirt view of her white panties, stocking tops and the lacy hem of her white slip. We will see more of the slip and panties later.

These are a very old pair of blue panties by Warners; Andrea has worn them many times and posted many photos on Flickr.

Andrea will usually wear them under a blue slip. Sometimes she gets carried away and takes a photo of her hand inside the French knickers pleasuring herself.

This is a brand-new set of lingerie in pale blue from Temu.

Andrea wore them with lacy pale blue suspenders, pale blue Gio stockings and pale blue heels.

Andrea also bought a matching pale blue nighty, although she likes to wear it as a slip.

They look nice together as a set.

This a fairly new gold half-slip from Temu.

It appeared recently in the Meg photo story. It is fast becoming one of Andrea's favourite slips.

This was another recent purchase, but from a shop, not online. Andrea bought a matching set of purple French knickers and a camisole from Primark in Leeds.

French knickers just have to be worn with stockings; they would get all baggy under tights. Here we see a lovely photo of Andrea from behind wearing both the cami and knickers with some black seamed stockings from Shein.

The white slips, panties and bras go in another bag for wash in the future. Andrea will need to wear some more white lingerie to make enough for a white/pale wash.

The coloured and dark laundry is all sorted into separate piles. The bras in one pile, stockings in a pile and suspenders in another. These all go into mesh bags to protect them.

It would be nice if Andrea could wash the stockings by hand but that is not possible in her house. She thinks that maybe she should take a quick photo of stockings hanging from the shower rail for a future story.

The three piles of delicates then go in mesh bags to stop them getting tangled and damaged in the washing machine. The panties and slips go in the blue laundry bag with the mesh bags on top. Andrea mustn't forget to make sure that the zips on the mesh bag are tucked in properly.

Andrea picks up the blue laundry bag and heads downstairs. We can see that she is wearing a blue denim skirt with the lacy hem of her white half slip peeping out. She is also wearing a very lacy white blouse that shows her white bra underneath. Her sheer stockings are black. She also has on white Mary Jane heels.

She adds the washing tablets and loads up the washing machine. The delicates cycle will take just over 2 hours. Time to relax, so Andrea heads back upstairs to the bedroom.

Andrea was excited and hot when she got upstairs. She took off her lacy blouse.

Her silky white bra came into view.

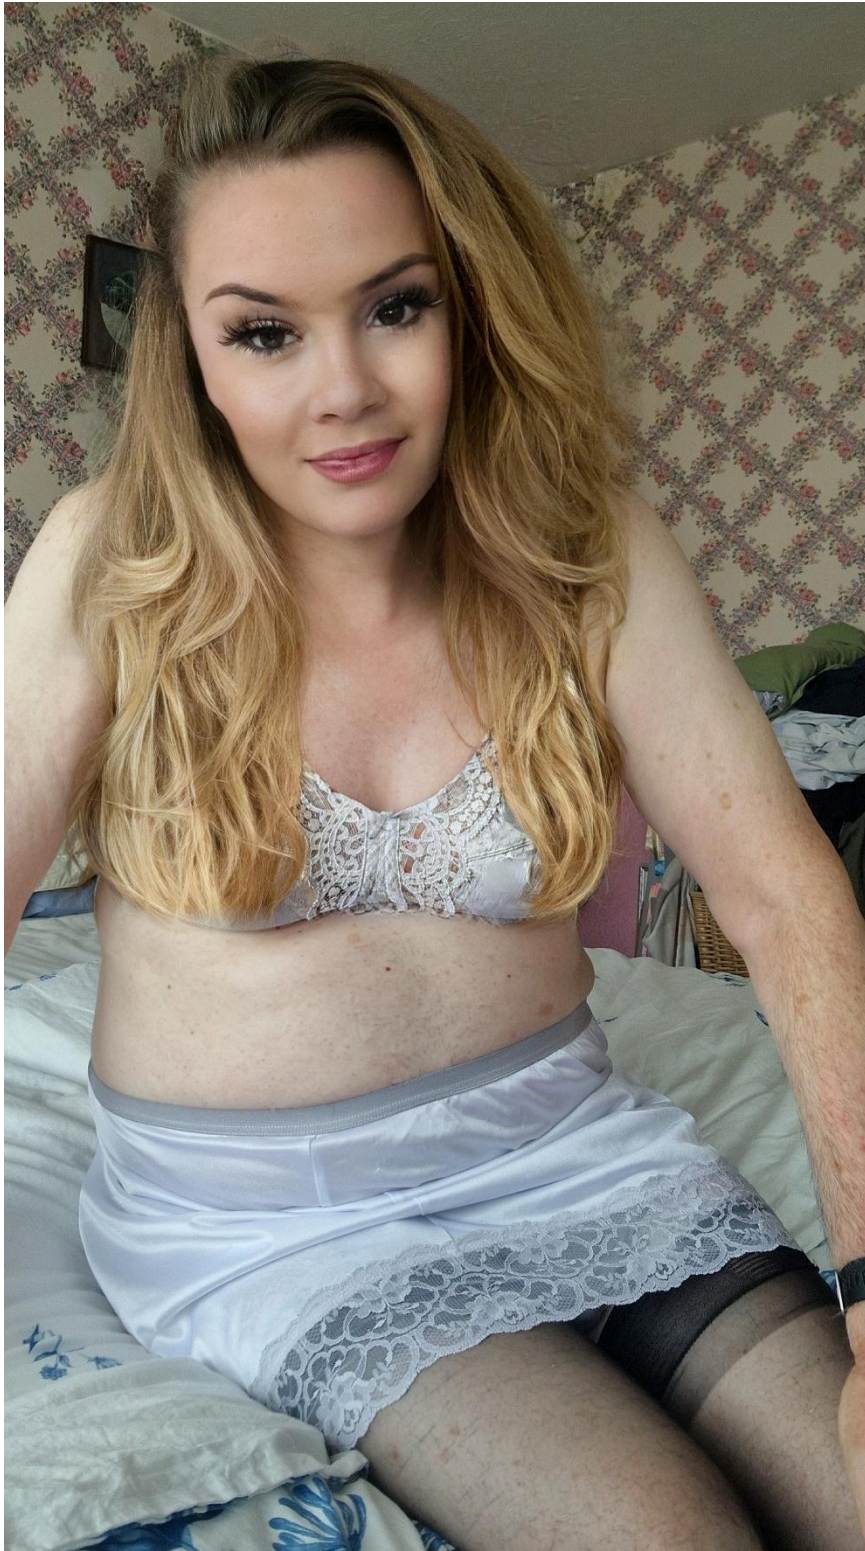

She decided her denim skirt had better come off as well.

Andrea's white slip was now in view to anyone watching her strip tease.

Andrea sat down on the bed for a rest. She loves looking down at the contrast between her lacy white slip and her sheer black stockings.

Andrea is getting stiff looking at her slip and stockings. She starts to rub her clitty through layers of nylon.

Then the slip comes off

She takes off her heels as well

Andrea starts to make a damp patch in her knickers as she pulls them up tight.

Perhaps you might like to rub her nylon clad arse with your stiff clitty?

Then, without further ado, she grabs hold of her stiff clitty before she cums. Oh no, too late, Andrea floods the silky white French knickers. More washing to do. Andrea is exhausted and needs a little rest before the next stage of the laundry cycle.

Andrea wakes up and must change her panties for a new pair before going downstairs. Very occasionally she is able to hang her lingerie in the garden. She loves seeing her slips flapping in the wind but there is not time today.

So today the dark wash lingerie must go in the tumble dryer. It will take a while so Andrea makes a cup of tea. Who would have thought that doing the laundry and wanking makes you so thirsty.

Eventually the tumble dryer has finished and bleeps. Andrea comes back and unloads the washing into the laundry bag. It feels all nice and warm. Andrea touches a silky slip to her face.

Sometimes Andrea gets the chance to iron her slips. She does like to be dressed in a slip and stockings when ironing,

It reminds Andrea of watching her mum doing the ironing in her slip when Andrea was much younger.

But the chance to iron her slips does not happen very often due to family life.

Andrea takes the laundry bag back upstairs.

She tips all the lingerie out on the bed. Then starts to fold each item carefully and put it into different piles.

There is a pile of full slips.

Half slips and camisoles.

Lots and lots of panties.

Stockings and suspenders. It can be a bit tedious having to match up all the different stockings, but it has to be done.

There are lots of coloured bras,

When the folding is finished the lingerie almost covers the whole bed.

Now to put them all away in the right draws ready for the next dress up and wank session.

The End
