

Laundry Blues by Andrea Slip

Folding laundry on a Saturday morning can be a bit of a chore but Andrea finds a way to make it more fun
<http://www.software04.uk/>

Andrea is folding her lingerie laundry, on a Saturday morning, just of those boring chores you have to do at the weekend.

“Better start with the stockings, those are the most difficult to sort and match. If only I had a maid to sort my laundry for me. I just don’t know anyone who could volunteer to do that, do you?”

As she picks out her stockings, she is finding it hard to differentiate some of her sheer black stockings to match up a pair. One wears so many pairs of black stockings in a week, doesn’t one? They look so similar, even the tops of the stocking. Has it got a seam or a wide plain band at the top?

Has it got the classic RHT keyhole at the top? There are several of these in the pile of stockings to be sorted. Then she starts to get excited as she feels the gossamer thin nylon whisper across the blue stockings and slip she is wearing this morning. Nylon sliding on nylon feels wonderful, like wearing two slips rubbing against each other, but she is only wearing one slip today, a mid-blue full slip under the blue and white dress. The hem of the dress has ridden up slightly to reveal the lacy hem of the slip.

It is so hard to match some of the stockings up when she is not actually wearing them. Andrea has an idea. She gets her phone out to login to Flickr and find her photos. Hmm, over 22,000 photos to look through but using “Sheer black nylons” in the search box shortens this to 270 photos. She scrolls through and finds some likely stockings. There is a full black slip and black stockings. Sheer stockings look right but she cannot see the top of the stockings.

Then Andrea finds a couple of possibilities that show the stocking tops clearly. In the first photo Andrea is lifting her slip up to show her gorgeous black Vanity Fair panties with that distinct triangle of lace. These panties are so sheer and silky that and Andrea's suspender belt is showing through. Andrea is getting hard looking at these pretty VF panties and stockings, are you too? I hope you are wearing silky panties like these and they are getting tented, just like mine are.

The second picture is more likely. Andrea is wearing plain black nylon panties and a sheer black bra with white trim. Her breasts show nicely through the sheer bra. Both pictures show the stockings worn with a suspender belt. Andrea decides the plain topped stocking in the second picture with the wide band are the right one.

"That's the stockings. What a good idea to look at Flickr," she says to herself.

The stockings in Andrea's hand are not hold ups and definitely need to be worn with suspenders. Then she finds two stockings that match the wide band in the second photo. Andrea knots them together and carries on sorting the other stockings. The brown stockings, the hold ups and lace top black stockings are fairly easy to match up.

Almost all the stockings are matched up until only two are left. Although they are both black, sheer nylon, no seam, wide plain top they are different lengths. The more modern stockings have elastic that shrinks when washed but the classic old-fashioned stockings, like the electric blue Gio stockings that Andrea is wearing, do not shrink. These two stockings are definitely different lengths.

“How did that happen,” asked Andrea? “ Oh well, I might find some odd stockings in my stockings draw. I will have a look later.”

I don’t know if you noticed that Andrea is wearing pale blue panties that match her slip. Maybe you did, but I thought I would point it out just in case you were only following the story about the mismatched black stockings. You may be wondering what kind of panties are they, are you? Are they bikini, a thong, Vanity Fair granny panties or possibly French knickers? You will have to wait and see.

With stockings finished Andrea moves onto to sorting full slips, half-slips, and panties. First up is a pair of pink full cut panties. The idea of searching her Flickr pictures has started to get Andrea hard in a way that friends of Andrea know only too well looking at her photos on Flickr. She looks at Flickr again to search for pink panties.

The first picture was possibly of the panties Andrea is holding. This picture shows a nice tent, but Andrea knew that when she found the second picture it was the right panties. These are very silky, full cut and pretty lace on the legs. Perhaps there is a hint of a stiff clitty in the silky pink nylon? What do you think?

Next up is a brown full slip, perhaps even the colour of caramel. Andrea remembers this slip well; it is one of her favourites and is a really unusual colour.

It was easy to find pictures of this gorgeous slip, lacy bust, lacy hem and so silky.

It is also quite short and shows stocking tops nicely. A lovely slip, beautiful colour. Someone on Flickr living in Italy offered to buy it, but Andrea would not sell. You can see why, it is a one off and would be so difficult to replace.

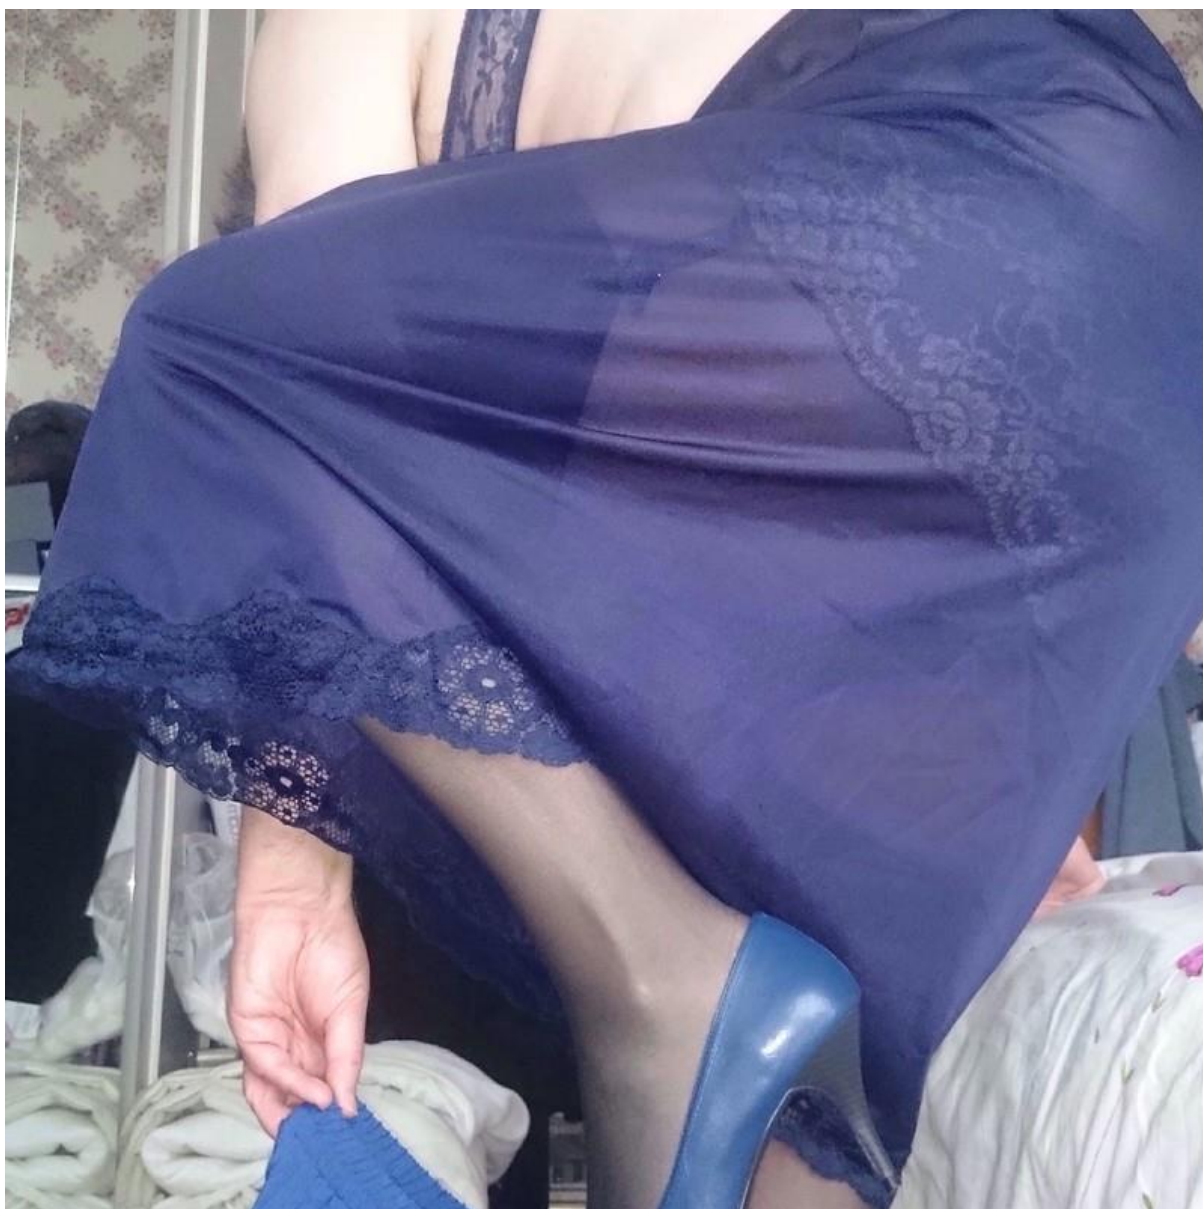

The next slip is a blue half-slip.

“This is a really long slip, I have worn this many times,” says Andrea.

Andrea searched on Flickr and found lots of pictures of this lovely slip.

There was one picture in particular that Andrea was looking for.

“That’s it,” exclaimed Andrea, “that’s the one.”

It shows Andrea taking off a blue pleated skirt. She has on blue high heels that match the slip and skirt. The nylon slip is pulled tight on her thighs to reveal a stocking top pulled tight by the thin strap of a suspender belt. Lacy blue panties also show through the thin nylon. A lacy blue bra is just visible in the picture. Andrea has creamed her panties many times look at this lovely picture, it is one of her all-time favourites. Perhaps you have creamed your panties as well?

“This slip will be perfect with this blue dress as a second slip,” says Andrea. She lifts her blue dress and steps into the blue half-slip.

Andrea pulls her dress down. The lacy hem of the darker blue slip was peeping out from the hem of her dress.

“Perfect,” says Andrea. “I know that Tom Honestly will love these photos when he sees my peeping slip, my blue stockings and my pumps, as he calls them.”

The matching of slips and panties to photos continues with a long silky grey half-slip.

"I love matching this slip with my grey stockings, my Warner's grey panties and a lacy grey bra," said Andrea. "These grey panties are pulled really tight on my bum in the first picture. Who would like to spurt their cream on these tight silky panties, slip and stockings? I can think of at least a couple of Flickr Friends that would say yes to that."

Next were some pink satin French knickers.

The pink French knickers have delightful white lace around the hem and with a split on the thigh.

“Very sexy,” says Andrea. “I love the contrast with my black nylon stockings.”

Perhaps you do to?

Andrea found a blue suspender belt next.

“How did that get out of the laundry bag. I was going to do the bras and suspenders belts later.”

This was trickier to match up but then Andrea found the right one.

Andrea picked up a blue pair of panties. Do you know what brand they are? You should do by now. They are, of course, Vanity Fair (VF) with the triangle of lace.

“I could have worn these today,” says Andrea, “they go perfectly with my pale blue slip.”

These VF panties are in a really big size, they look huge on Andea, trully granny panties. Perhaps your granny let you wear her panties and slips, or perhaps you did but you didn't tell her? You can tell me, no one will know what you got up to at grannies house.

Andrea has taken many photos of these silky panties over the years.

These are a few of her favourites that she found. I hope you like them. She always seems to leave a stain in the granny panties. Perhaps you did too and Granny found them?

The final item to fold was a pair of red panties.

There were several contenders but Andrea isn't sure which are the right ones.

Then she found the right picture of the panties.

“Looks like I was wearing stockings over seamed tights. I think the back seam is on the tights not on the stockings. I was about to put on a lovely red half slip that used to belong to my wife but is mine now.”

So that was all the stockings, slips and panties all sorted into piles. The bras and suspenders belts, apart from the errant blue suspenders, were still in their separate white mesh bags used to protect the delicate items and to stop them getting tangled. They didn't need sorting, they could go straight into the right draw in the bedroom.

Andrea picked up her lingerie piles and was about to head upstairs when she paused for thought.

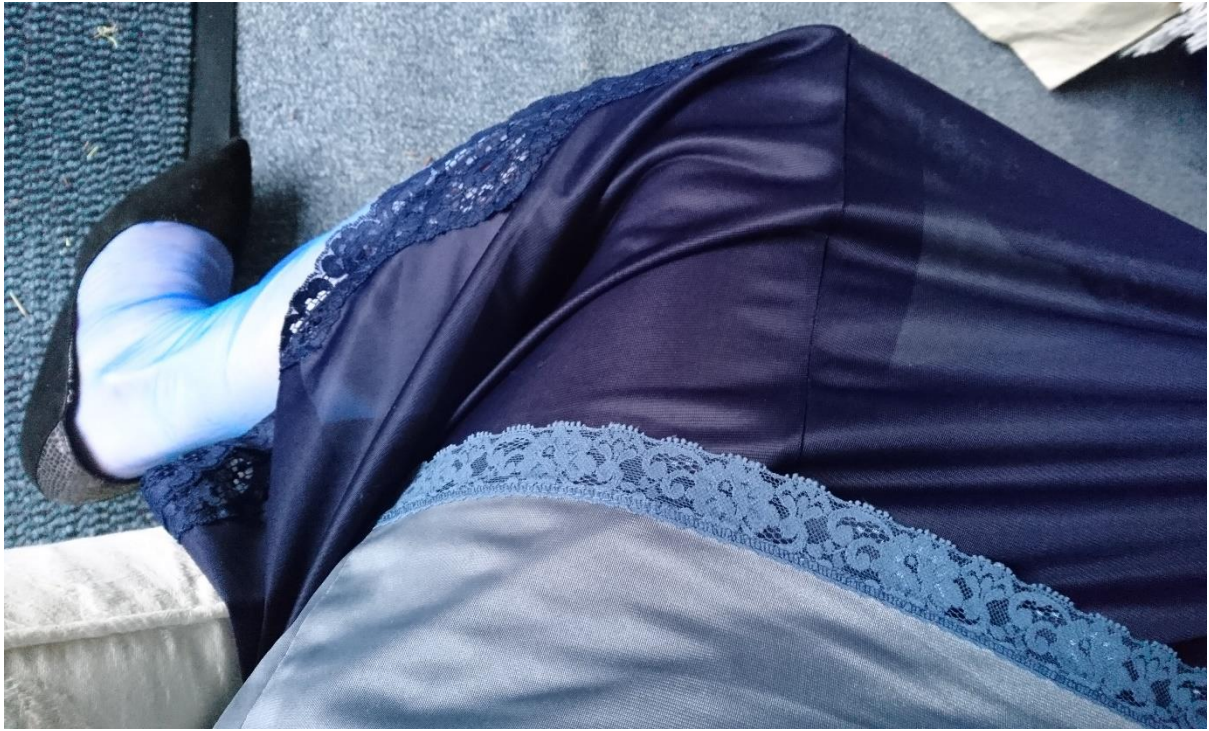

“I haven’t finished my cup of tea yet,” she says as she put down her laundry for a moment.

“I am so lucky to be able to have such a lovely collection of lingerie that makes me feel so femme and sexy,” thought Andrea as she sipped her tea. “I love sharing photos of me in my dress and slips with my friends on Flickr. Wait a minute. I have just thought, no one has really seen what pretty lingerie I am wearing under the blue and white dress I am wearing to sort my laundry. They may have caught some glimpses but not seen properly yet. I must show my friends what panties, bra and slips I am wearing, they will be expecting it.”

Andrea removes her blue and white dress to reveal the two blue slips she is now wearing. The dark blue half-slip is very much longer than the paler blue full slip.

She sits down to admire the lacy hems of the two slips.

Andrea loves sharing her slip pics with you.

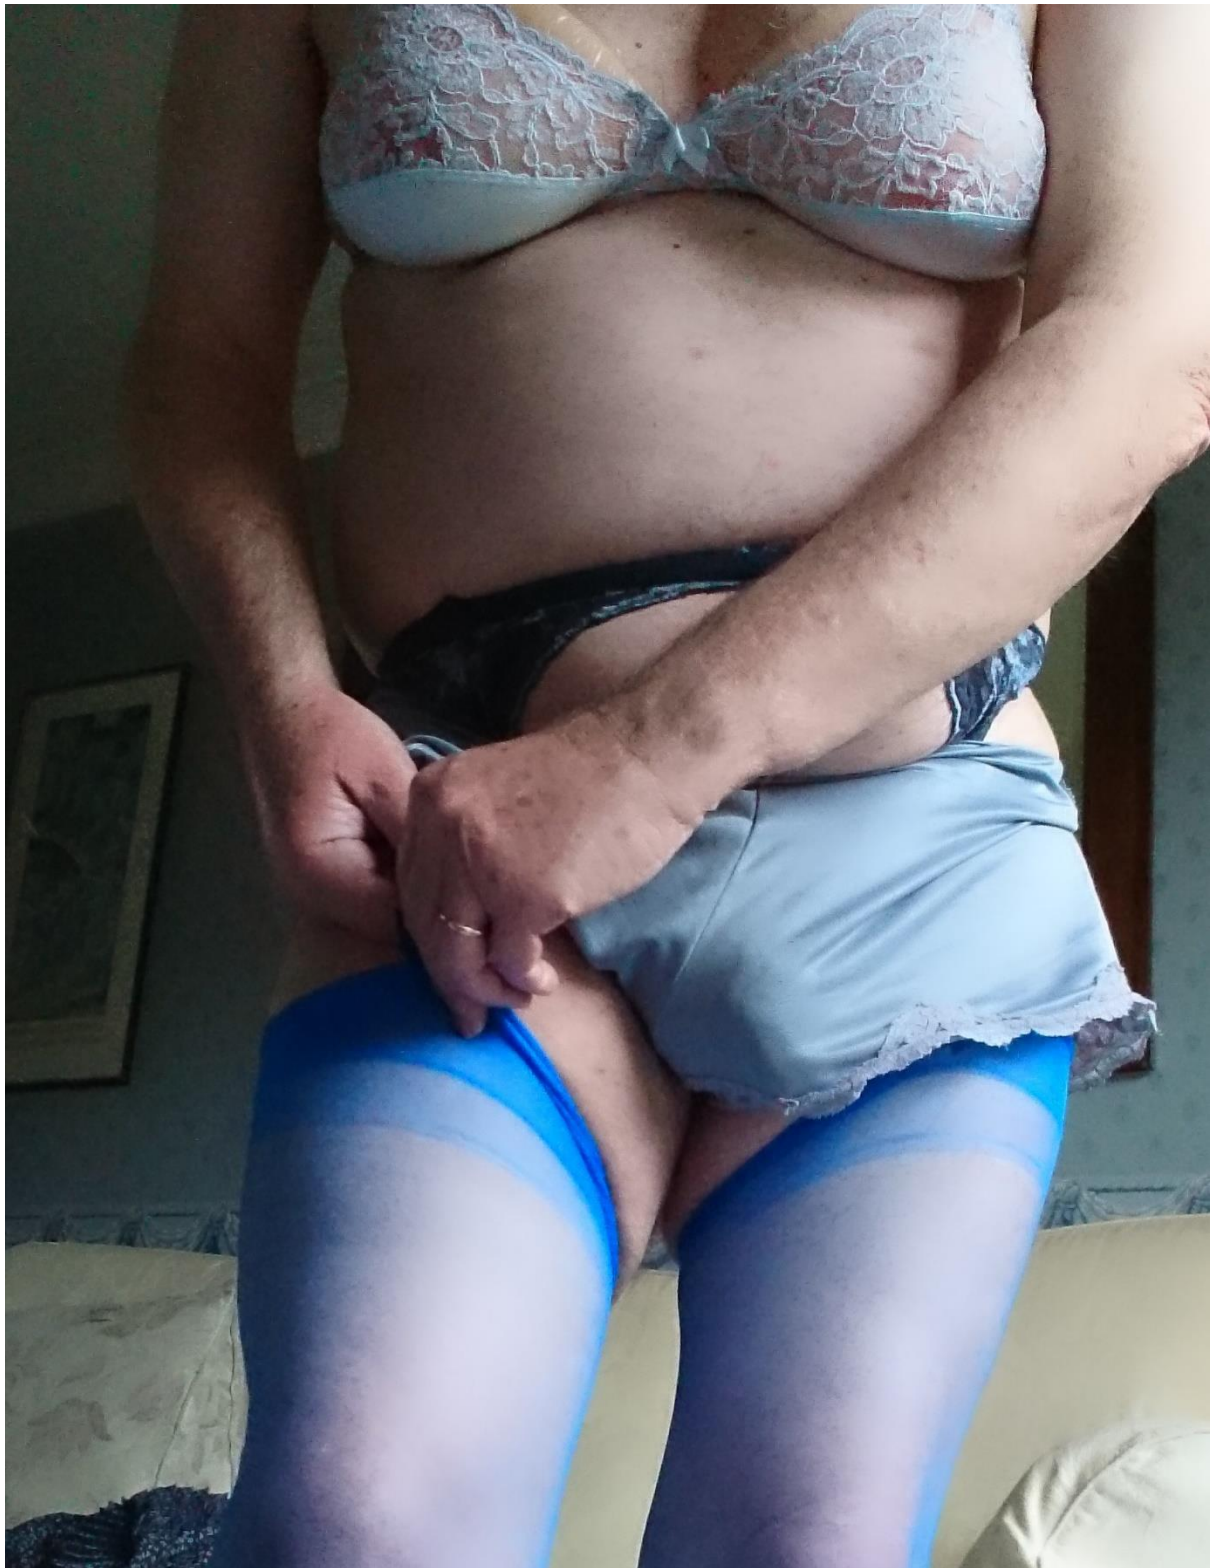

She removes the pale blue full slip. Oh yes, you can see her stocking tops, suspenders, and panties, just like in the old photo of this slip. Andrea is getting excited again, are you?

She is wearing a pretty pale blue bra with lots of lace on the top half and silky-smooth nylon on the bottom half. If you look carefully you can see Andrea's boobs and nipples through the bra.

It is time for the second slip to come down. As she slides the silky nylon slip down her legs the slip rubs against the electric blue stockings. Andrea also reveals that she is wearing tight, silky French knickers. Perhaps you guessed right? Was this what you were hoping to see? Oh, no have you spurted cum into you own panties, again?

“Oh, darn it,” says Andrea, “One of my suspender straps has come loose. These Gio stockings are so long.” She reattaches the errant suspender to the blue stocking top. Gio’s are so silky. Perhaps you already know that from your own experiences with stockings?

Perhaps you like it when Andrea pulls up her panties tightly outlining her stiff clitty? Andrea does too and it makes her flood the pale blue French knickers and her blue stockings with hot sticky cum.

“Thank you for cumming,” says Andrea. “It made a dull chore into something more exciting. Make sure you cum again.”

The End
