

The Office Manager 2

A photo story by Andrea Slip

Jane returns to the office dressed in the way she has always wanted. Could the day get any better?
Part 2 of a 2 part story

Jimmy had been sent home by Miss Knicker, the new manager, and come back dressed as Jane, in accordance with the dress code of Software04. Jane spoke to his colleagues when he got back to the office and then went to Miss Knicker's office.

"Let me have a look at you, Jane," said Miss Knicker. "Very good, that's much better. Now, as your manager I am obliged to do a dress code check. Show me what lies beneath your pretty skirt and blouse. I can already see your lacy slip peeping out. "

Jane lifted her skirt and fiddled with her suspenders. Her sissy blue panties came into view.

Miss Knicker stood up and removed her skirt and blouse.

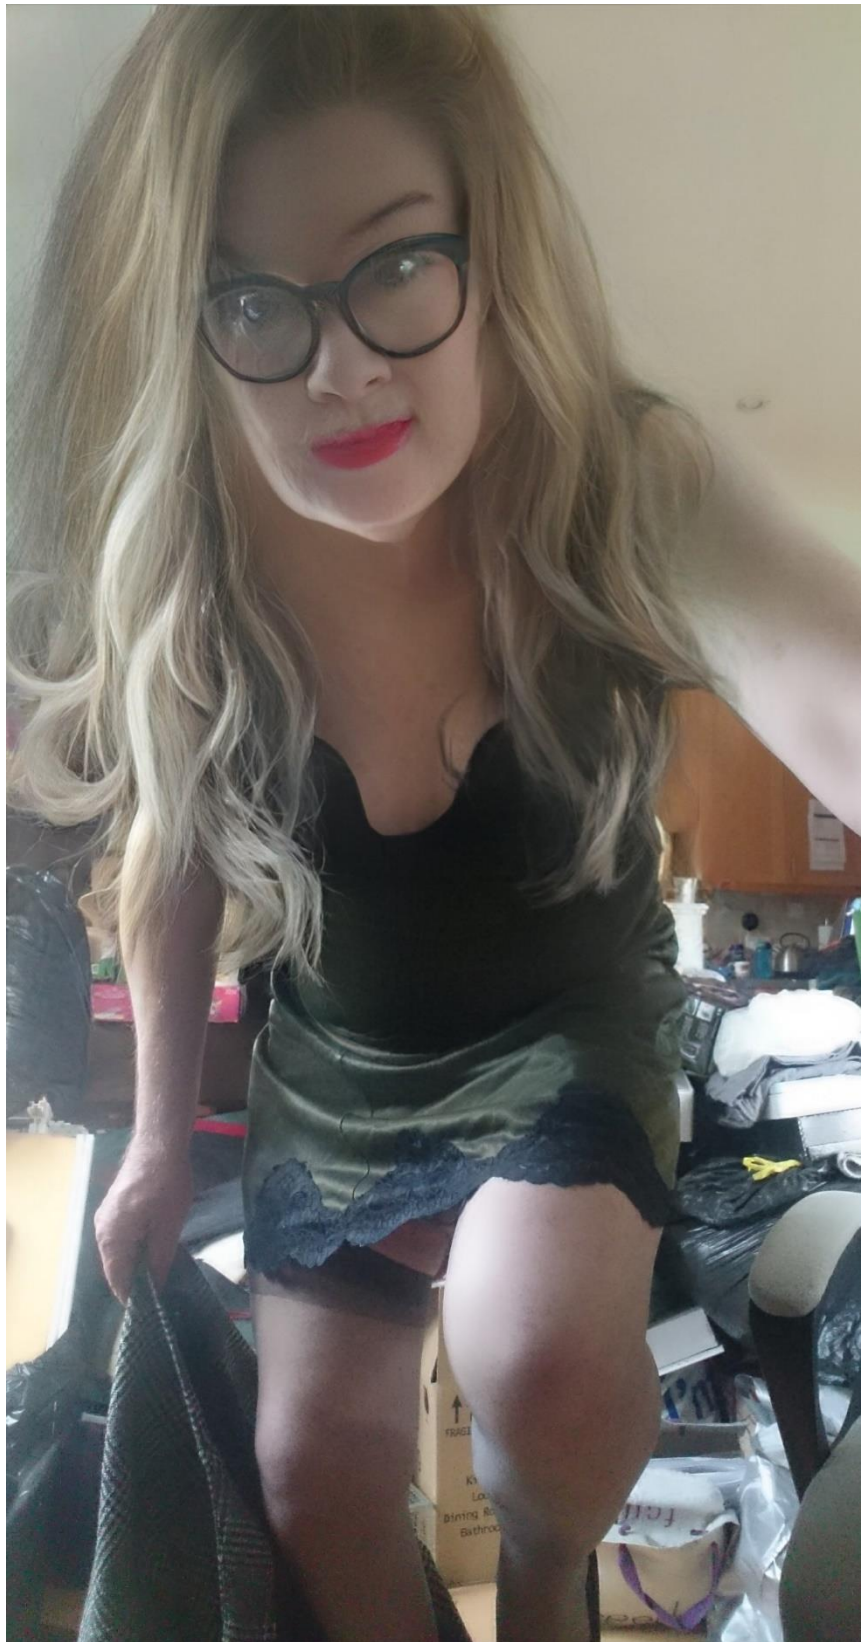

“Now you can see my slip, Jane. I too comply with the dress code. The ladies in the office will in slips and stockings tomorrow as well.”

“I know, they told me, I am lending them some slips to wear, but they will have to put them on when they get to work.”

“Half-slips?”

“Yes, I have several slips I can lend them. I hope that is ok, Miss Knicker?”

“OK for tomorrow but lend them some full slips as well for the future.”

“I washed some of my full slips last week, so I should have plenty of spares.”

There was a tight black slip that might be OK for Meena.

And a bigger white full slip for Sarah. Jane was getting hard thinking about what she had worn under the white slip last time, black panties, bra, stockings, suspenders and a half-slip. The nylon rubbing together was wonderful.

Miss Knicker had sat down in the chair in her charcoal grey / black full slip.

“Now take off your skirt and top so I can check that you are now wearing a bra.”

Jane removed her blouse and skirt.

“Very nice matching set.”

"I like matching undies too," said Miss Knicker lifting her slip to reveal her grey knickers, grey suspenders and grey stocking tops. "Are you getting hard Jane?"

“Perhaps this would help.” Miss Knicker removed her slip to reveal her grey panties and bra.

Jane was getting harder and harder. Miss Knicker lent forward and pulled down Jane's sisssy blue knickers as Jane lifted her slip. Miss Knicker gave Jane's stiffy a quick squeeze.

"You can cum over my tits."

She took off her gey lacy bra and sat down again in her chair wearing just her knickers, stockings and suspenders. Her big tits bounced as she sat down and she shoved her hand inside her grey panties.

Jane was wanking her clitty furiously and soon spurted white cum over those soft orbs. She could see why she shortened her name to Miss Knicker.

“Ahh... “exclaimed Jane in a big release of tension. “I have always wanted to cum over tits.” The cum was dripping down over Miss Knickers tits, knickers and onto her stockings.

Miss Knicker came too as she wanked with her hand in her silky grey panties,

When she recovered she said, “There will be dress code check every morning at 9.30am, Jane. You can check the ladies, Sarah and Meena, then cum in here for your inspection.”

“Yes, Miss Knicker.”

The next day Jane dressed for the office in pink lingerie, a brown skirt, pink blouse, dotty brown hosiery and pink high heels. She felt wonderful being free to dress the way she had always wanted for the office. She remembered at the last minute to pick up some slips for Sarah and Meena. A mix of half-slips and full slips in various colours.

At 9am Jane sat down in her chair and explained about the morning dress code check. Sarah wasn't sure about this.

"I must be checked by Miss Knicker myself at 9.30pm. You only have to lift your skirt, nothing else, just to show you are wearing stockings and a slip. "

"Ok... "said Sarah, still hesitant. "Did you bring a slip?"

Jane reached into her bag and pulled out some slips.

“Miss Knickers wants you to wear half-slip today but in the future you can choose a half-slip or a full slip for work. “

“Let’s get on with it then,” said Meena.

Meena was wearing a black and white dress with black hosiery and white high heeled boots. She took the white half-slip pulled it up under her skirt. The lacy edge of the slip showed.

“Do you still need to see if I am wearing stockings?”

“Yes, said Jane. “Miss Knicker said it is in the small print of our contracts and now it is being enforced.”

Meena slowly raised her skirt and slip until her stocking tops came into view. She kept going in full tease mode. Her white panties appeared.

“That’s fine, Meena.”

Jane had started getting hard looking at Meena in her very tight black and white dress. She tried to disguise how stiff she was but failed.

"I can see the effect it has on you Jane. I can see right up your skirt. There is a very unlady-like bulge in your pink satin panties. Maybe my boyfriend might enjoy seeing me reveal my slip, stockings, and knickers after all. I am getting a bit damp too now," said Meena. She dropped her slip and skirt back down.

Sarah chose a pale blue half-slip as she was wearing a blue denim skirt and a dark blue flowery blouse.

“Do I have to,” asked Sarah?

“I know you feel uncomfortable about it, Sarah, but we all want to keep our jobs,” said Jane.

Jane stepped into the blue slip and pulled it under her skirt. The slip had even more lace than the white slip Meena was wearing. Sarah’s stocking tops, suspenders and dark panties showed through the lace. She dropped the slip and skirt back down.

“I haven’t worn stockings and a slip for so long, I can’t remember when,” said Sarah.

“Oh, the slip feels nice against my stockings, but is the slip too long for this skirt? The hem shows when I sit down,” said Sarah looking down at the lacy hem of the slip peeping out from under her blue denim skirt as it caressed her sheer black stockings.

“It is fine, the colours match really well. I will make a slip lover of you both soon. Now have a look at these other slips whilst I go and get my inspection by Miss Knicker.”

Miss Knicker was sitting in her office. Today she was wearing a white dress with white spots and long black boots. The way she was sitting did not disguise the fact that she was wearing stockings and a black slip. Both the stocking tops and the lacy hem of the slip were peeping out.

“Ah, there you are, Jane, ready for your dress code inspection. Have you checked the ladies?”

“Yes, Jane is now wearing a blue half-slip and Meena a white one.”

“And stockings?”

“Yes, they are.”

“Now your turn, Jane. You look lovely in your brown corduroy skirt, pink blouse, and pink high heels. Your makeup and hair is much better today. You look so sexy in your dotty hosiery. Stockings I presume?”

Jane raised her skirt and slip slowly, just like Meena had done.

“Very nice panties, slip and stockings, Jane.

Although it looks like you had an accident in your panties. There are some stains.”

“Yes, I had to go to the toilet for a wank after the inspection in our office. Seeing Meena raise her skirt and slip made me very hard. She even noticed the bulge in my panties. That made me even harder.”

“I need to have a closer look.”

Miss Knicker got off the chair and bobbed down in front of Jane.

“You are a naughty gurl. Now take off your skirt and blouse. I want to see your slip,” commanded Miss Knicker in her German accent.

Jane removed her skirt and blouse.

“Turn around, I want to check your stockings from behind. Ah yes, seams with a little bow on the bottom of the seam. That looks so sexy with your pink high heels.

The seam leads my eye all the way up your stockings to the top band and to the lacy hem of your slip. That is a lovely full slip, it goes so well with your stockings and heels. Such attention to detail, Jane. Take off your slip. I need to check your panties and bra.

“Oh, my goodness, two slips, I hadn’t noticed that.”

Jane had taken off her full slip to reveal that she was wearing a short satin half-slip underneath.

“That satin slip looks so good with your satin bra. Now you need to check me.”

Miss Knicker stood up and slowly lifted her slip and dress.

“That looks nice, Miss Knicker, black panties, a black slip, tight suspenders and sheer stockings. I think that passes the test,” said Jane.

Jane knew that it was more than just a test. She stepped out of her pink satin half-slip.

Miss Knicker removed her dress and sat down on her office chair to admire Jane's lingerie.

Jane's sheer pink panties came into view.

She turned round to face Miss Knicker.

"I love your lacy pink suspender belt, so sexy," said Miss Knicker.

"Do I pass the test?"

“Hmm,” said Miss Knicker, opening her legs to give Jane an excellent view up her slip.

“No, there is an optional extra-curricular activity. Take off your bra so I can see your big tits, then pull down your panties.”

Jane released her bra and pulled her pink panties down to her stocking tops. Her stiff clitty was framed by the lacy pink suspender belt and the stocking tops. This felt so sexy.

Miss Knicker stood up and took off her slip to reveal her black lacy bra.

“Yes, that’s right, a nice small clitty that is getting stiff. Let me help with that.” She sat down again and scooted the office chair closer to Jane. She put her hands on Jane’s stockings. No hand job today, Jane’s stiff clitty went straight into Miss Knicker’s mouth. Jane had never done this before but had fantasised about being sucked off by a women whilst wearing stockings and lingerie. It was as good, if not better than Jane expected. Miss Knicker licked and swallowed Jane’s stiffy. Jane could not hold back.

“I am going to cum, aaghhh,” squeaked Jane as she flooded Miss Knicker’s mouth, Miss Knicker did not blink, or choak, she swallowed all the cum.

Jane had to sit down as her legs were shaking after her milking.

“Now you need to milk me,” said Miss Knicker as she stood up and pulled down her black panties.

Jane was shocked to see a small clitty pop out.

"We are two of a kind, Jane. Now you can milk me with your mouth."

Despite never having done this before Jane leant forward and took the clitty in her mouth. It felt so hot. Having learnt from her Mistress only moments before she licked and sucked like an experienced cock sucker. She took the whole of her clitty in her mouth. It felt so hot. Jane ran her hands up and down Miss Knicker's stockings. When Miss Knicker came Jane had to let go, she couldn't swallow. Miss Knickers cum spurted over Jane's big tits.

"Same time tomorrow, Jane."

That is not quite the end of the story. You may be wondering what happened to the two ladies in the office, Sarah, and Meena, when they got home that night wearing a slip that they had not worn when they went to work.

Meena teased her boyfriend, when she got home, with a glimpse of her stocking tops and lacy slip.

“Oh my God,” said Raj, “You finally wore stockings but what is that white thing?”

She took off the tight black and white dress.

“It is a slip, we have to wear it and stockings for work, do you mind?”

“No, not at all, that looks so sexy.”

“Shall take it off, lover?”

“No, let’s go to the bedroom now, lover.”

Sarah teased her husband at home as well in the bedroom with a quick flash up her skirt.

“Is this new dress code for work that told me about last night” asked Tony.

“Yes, that’s right, slip and stockings for work now, it is in our contract apparently,” said Sarah as she took off her skirt and blouse.

Sarah started to take off her blue slip.

“Leave it on Sarah,” said Tony. “We can have some fun.”

Sarah pulled the slip back up and climbed into bed with her husband. They both enjoyed the sex play that followed as Tony rubbed the slip all over her stockings before fondling her slit through the black panties. She was getting really damp. Tony rolled her over onto her back, lifted the slip and pulled down the black nylon panties. He pushed his stiff cock into her juicy box. Jane lifted her legs and wrapped the nylon stockings around Tony’s back. This only spurred Tony on as he got faster and soon released his seed into his wife.

“I hope you are wearing a slip and stockings to work again tomorrow, darling.”

“Oh yes, I have a full slip to try on tomorrow.”

The End
