

Teams

The Corona Virus crisis had forced Andy to work from home. This gave him an opportunity to dress for work as Andrea in silky lingerie and a short skirt, something she had always fantasised about. Andrea's team were trying out a new piece of software to communicate, Teams, which had a surprising result for Andrea and her boss.

The Corona Virus pandemic has forced Andy's office to close so almost all staff were working from home. It was a tragedy for some people with many lives lost but so far Andy was safe. Last night he had joined in the applause for the NHS workers who were doing an amazing job at grave risk to their own lives to help those with the people hospitalised by the awful virus.

Andy's manager, Kieran Smith, had also insisted his team dress smartly, as if in the office, as it would enforce a working time mentality. Andy was a bit annoyed about this, however, it gave him some new opportunities to dress in the way he always fantasied about dressing for work as Andrea, a secretary. He had some new white panties he had just received in the post (thank you postal workers) that he wanted to try today.

The panties were Glossies by Gossard. Andrea had bought them online from eBay to match a glossy white bra she purchased a couple of weeks earlier. Andrea decided to go all white so put on her new white bra, white lacy suspender belt and lacy topped white stockings. She was a little worried that the panties might be too big. She drew the panties up over her stockings. Oh, that felt nice, they were certainly silky. It gave Andrea's little cockette a little jolt.

Andrea pulled the new panties up over his cockette and suspender belt. The fit was perfect, not too big at all. They were not lacy as many of Andrea's French knickers but did have a nice little frill on the leg that matched the pattern on the edge of the bra. The only disappointing thing was that they were not as sheer as the bra, which showed Andrea's tits wonderfully.

Andrea pulled the big panties into place. She couldn't resist a little rub of her cockette nestling in the silky nylon.

Andrea checked on her camera phone and was pleased that you could tell that she was wearing a lacy white suspender belt as it showed through the thin white panties. Not much of a bulge but this was for work, so no playtime, well maybe later.

Andrea picked up and stepped into her little black skirt with white buttons. It was quite tight and quite short. She could see her lacy stocking tops. Saucy, for the office, perhaps even a bit slutty!

Andrea realised she had forgotten to put on her slip first. She took off the little back skirt and picked up her silky white full slip. The slip slide down over her bra, panties and stockings. It felt wonderful to be wearing all the silky lingerie.

Andrea put the black skirt back on and had to adjust the slip and skirt as the slip was stuck under the skirt. She pulled the hem of the slip down and then the skirt.

The hem of the slip did peek out slightly from the bottom of the skirt, just as Andrea hoped. She loved to show off a peeping lacy slip hem. Next, she picked up her black blouse and pulled it down over her head.

She had chosen this blouse because it was black and went with the black skirt quite well. Oh, did I mention that it is also extremely sheer and showed off her white lingerie perfectly. So, not only was Andrea displaying the lacy hem of her white slip and her stocking tops, but she was also displaying the lacy bust of her pretty white slip. Not that anyone else would see it, of course.

Shoes next. Andrea picked up her gorgeous black strappy sandals with 4-inch heels and slipped the first shoe onto her left stockings foot.

As Andrea did up the black leather strap wondered if perhaps, she should have chosen white strappy sandals or even white court heels instead to go with the white lingerie. Then she decided she really liked the contrast of the thin leather strap against the sheer white nylon stockings. Anyone sitting on the floor at that moment watching Andrea put on her heels would have had a wonderful view up Andrea's skirt to see her lacy stocking tops, her lace edged white slip and even her shiny white panties. Although up-skirting photos were banned in the UK now, without the models permission, Andrea loved giving this sexy view to others who appreciated it.

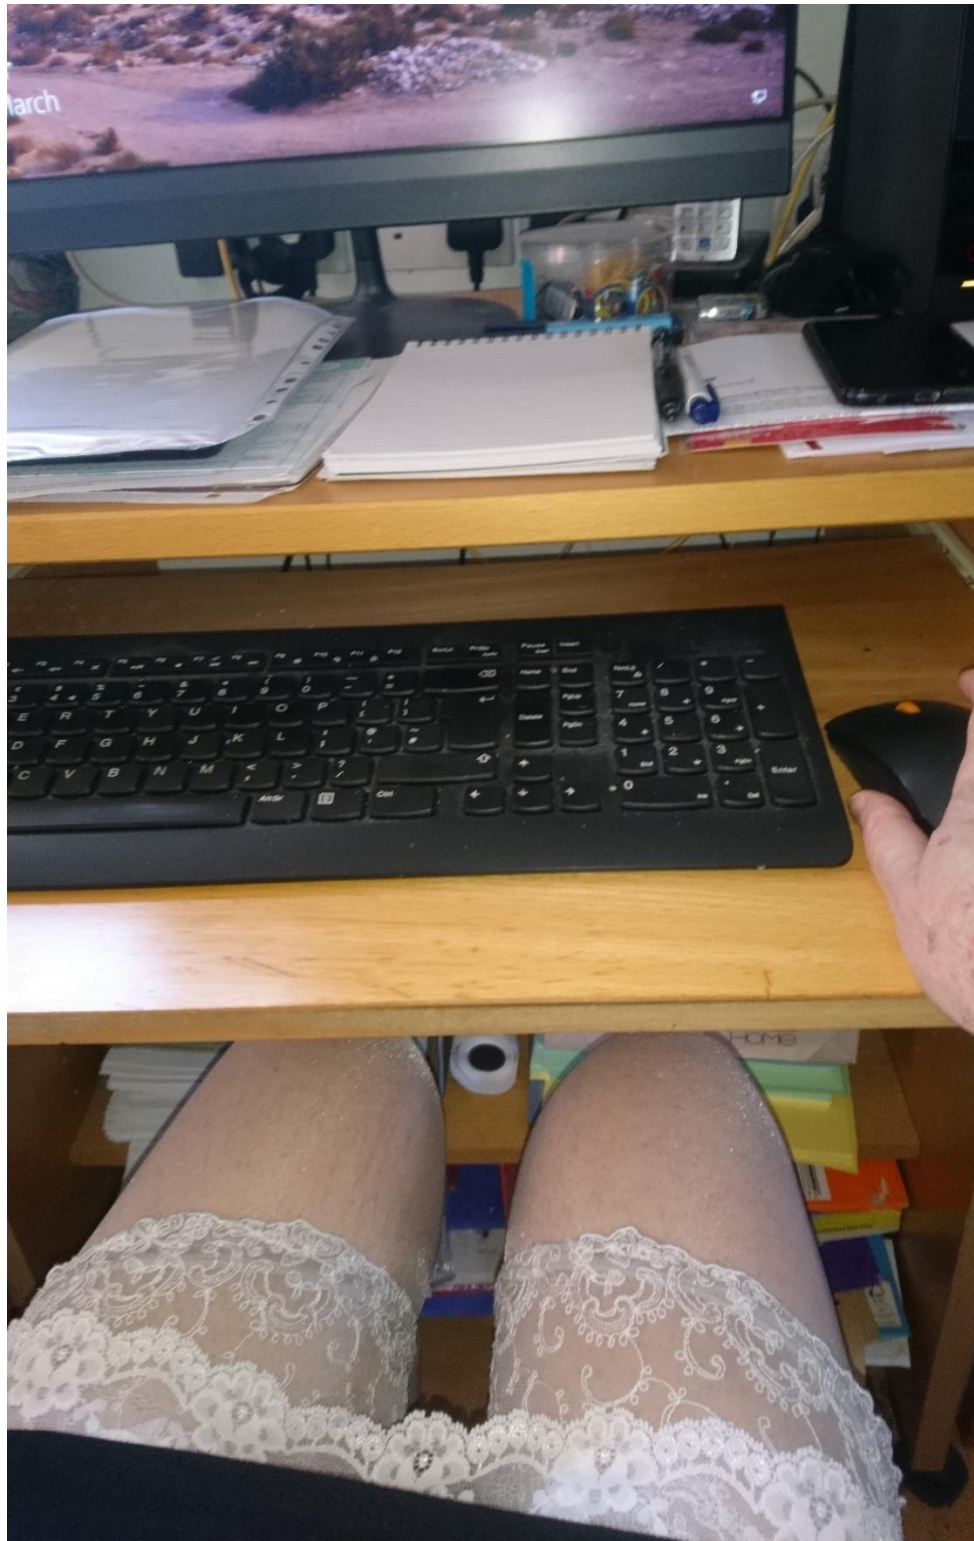

Andrea put her other shoe on and checked both straps were on properly.

Andrea stood up and checked the view in her camera phone. She liked what she saw. Although she normally preferred sheer black nylons, it was nice to wear the white stockings for a change. Now she was ready to start work for the day.

As Andrea sat down at her computer, she looked down at her skirt. It had ridden up to reveal the lacy hem of her white slip and the lacy white stocking tops. She could even see the ribbons of her suspender belt where they were attached to her stocking tops.

She vowed she would not be distracted by the sight of frothy lingerie, it was going to be hard, in more ways than one. Andrea started the computer and logged on to her email and then to MS Teams. The company had decided everyone should start using Teams during the remote working to communicate as you could have conversations and share files. Andrea's manager, Kieran, was very enthusiastic about this and had got Andrea and colleagues in the sales department to use it every day.

Andrea settled down to work and answered some emails. Then she started uploading some files to a new platform the company was trying. She also used Teams to have a chat with a couple of her colleagues to see how they were coping and if they were safe.

Andrea stood up after a couple of hours to stretch her legs and go to the loo, where she washed her hands (for more than 20 seconds, of course). She was walking back to the computer when there was ding from Teams and Kieran, Andrea's boss popped up on screen in a Teams video call, not the normal chat.

“Hi Andy, I just wanted to clear up what resources we are going to use for the Guttman quote, I ....” Kieran’s voice suddenly tailed off as he looked up at his colleague.

Andrea was shocked, she had forgotten to turn off the video camera on her PC. Kieran could see her as she stood in front of the computer and Andrea could see in the small picture in picture herself in all her femme glory.

It was Kieran who recovered first. “Well, well, well, I see you have dressed up for the office, Andy.”

Andrea was almost speechless, “I err.....”

“No need to explain Andy, what you do at home is your business, but I can’t call you Andy. What shall I call you?”

“Andrea, I suppose,” said Andrea gradually getting her voice back and the shock of being caught out by video conference.

“Do a twirl, Andrea, so I can see you properly.”

Andrea turned around slowly. There was a whistle from Kieran.

“Oh my, your black blouse is so sheer I can see your cami. Is that stocking tops, are you actually wearing stockings. Oh My God.”

“It’s a full length slip not a cami, “ said Andrea as she turned back to face the camera on the top of the PC screen, “and yes I am wearing stockings.”

“Lift up your skirt, Andrea, I want to see your slip and stockings. I don’t believe it.”

Andrea slowly lifted her black skirt. The slip was slightly rucked and pulled the slip up with it. Andrea could see on the screen her slip was high enough to show the whole of her lacy stocking tops and even the garter straps of her suspender belt. She could hear a rustling sound from the screen and then the distinct sound of a trouser zip being yanked down.

“Oh my God, you really are wearing a slip and stockings and suspenders. My granny used to wear a slip like that. I didn’t know any one still wore one. Your lingerie looks amazing, Andrea.”

“You like it then, Kieran?”

“I always wondered if you were a tranny when I thought I could see you wearing a bra under a white shirt and some dark nylon socks when your feet were sticking out from under the desk. I dismissed the idea, but now I know.”

“Do you want to see my panties, Mr Smith,” asked Andrea.

“Oh, yes,”

As Andrea slowly lifted her slip, teasing Kieran she could hear more urgent rustling and some heavy breathing.

“Are you masturbating, Mr Smith, I can gear lots of rustling and you seem to be pulling some very strange faces,” asked Andrea.

There were only grunts coming from the Teams app.

“I think I will join in,” said Andrea as she pushed her hand into her new silky panties.

“Do you want me to take my skirt and blouse off so you can see my pretty lingerie you seem to like so much?”

“Urgg, yes,” was all Andrea could hear from Kieran.

Andrea slid her black skirt down and stepped out of it. Her slip dropped to cover her lacy stocking tops. She swayed and played with the hem of her slip for a few moments.

Andrea lifted the sheer black blouse over her head to reveal the whole length of her pretty white full slip.

“Do you want me to take my granny slip off as well, Mr Smith?”

Andrea didn't wait to find out as Kieran's face was still screwed but he was watching the slow strip tease unfolding in front of him through a narrow slit in his eyelids. Andrea herself was starting to get stiff as well.

“These are new panties, Mr Smith, they match my sheer bra. I put them on today, especially for you. They are called Glossies by Gossard. I expect you like seeing my big tits through my sheer bra. If you look carefully you can see my lacy suspender belt through my panties.

Kieran’s breathing had got rapid and louder. He was grunting louder.

Andrea’s panties were starting to get a tent. How she wished the panties were as sheer as the bra.

Andrea pulled down her new panties and took hold of her stiff cockette. At that moment Kieran exploded, cum shot up into the air and landed on Kieran's camera. Andrea began pumping away.

When Kieran, had recovered somewhat, he said, "Well Andrea, I am so glad we started to use Teams. But when we get back to the office I want to see you dressed as my sexy secretary."

The realisation of Andrea's fantasy of dressing in silky lingerie and completely femme at the office, was cuming true. Andrea could hold out no longer and spurted cum all over her new panties.
