

The Tube

Anne knew I loved her in her silky slips and she'd often flash me without warning just to get me going! One day when she was about 40, we were travelling in London on the tube, when she got the devil in her. \as we sat in the carriage, she noticed a man opposite staring up her skirt.

Shifting slightly, she let her skirt ride up a bit and made sure her stocking tops came into view! Her lacy black hem of her short silky black waist slip also gave him something to think about. He was gazing openly at her legs and she crossed and re-crossed her legs to make sure he got the best view he could, while smiling at both him and me.

"I think he wants to play with my slip" she whispered to me and winked at him!
As the train got busier, she said, "I think I'll stand by him and see if he wants to run his hands up my legs."

Without a word, she stood up and stood right in front of the middle aged man and wiggled in her short pleated skirt and sheer nylons with her silky black slip just peeping out from under the skirt!. His hand sneaked out nervously and disappeared up the skirt at the back and I could see her squirming as he rubbed her pantied bottom under the skirt.

A few minutes later as the train was getting really busy, I also stood up and placed myself facing her and felt myself being pressed against her. The reason for this was that he had also stood up and was pressing his bulge against her bottom, forcing her to push into me. "Why not help him" she said, and guided my hands to the hem of her short pleated skirt. I slowly lifted it up at the back and he instantly pressed against her black slip covered bottom. His hands snaked round her hips and stroked her stocking tops as his bulge rubbed between her cheeks. I felt, more than saw her reach back, and knew she was unzipping him and she told me her hand was now inside his trousers.

I could feel her silky black slip was being pushed up as the front was also coming up! Her tight black shiny panties must have been on view along with her sheer stocking tops, as a couple of other men who were sat down were distinctly uncomfortable in their pants! "God" she shuddered, "I hope he splashes over my panties" and was grinding her black pantied bottom against his exposed large hard cock!

Tube 7

"Please unzip me" I whispered, but before she could, we both heard him gasp, and she looked surprised as she said

"Wow! He's just shot his cum all over my bottom!"

This made me cum myself in my trousers as, I suspect others did.

Without a word, the man disappeared down the carriage and Anne and I moved a little up the carriage, so the others who were rubbing themselves could get a better view! I held her skirt up by her waist as she displayed herself in the short black slip and sheer nylons for the others to cum!

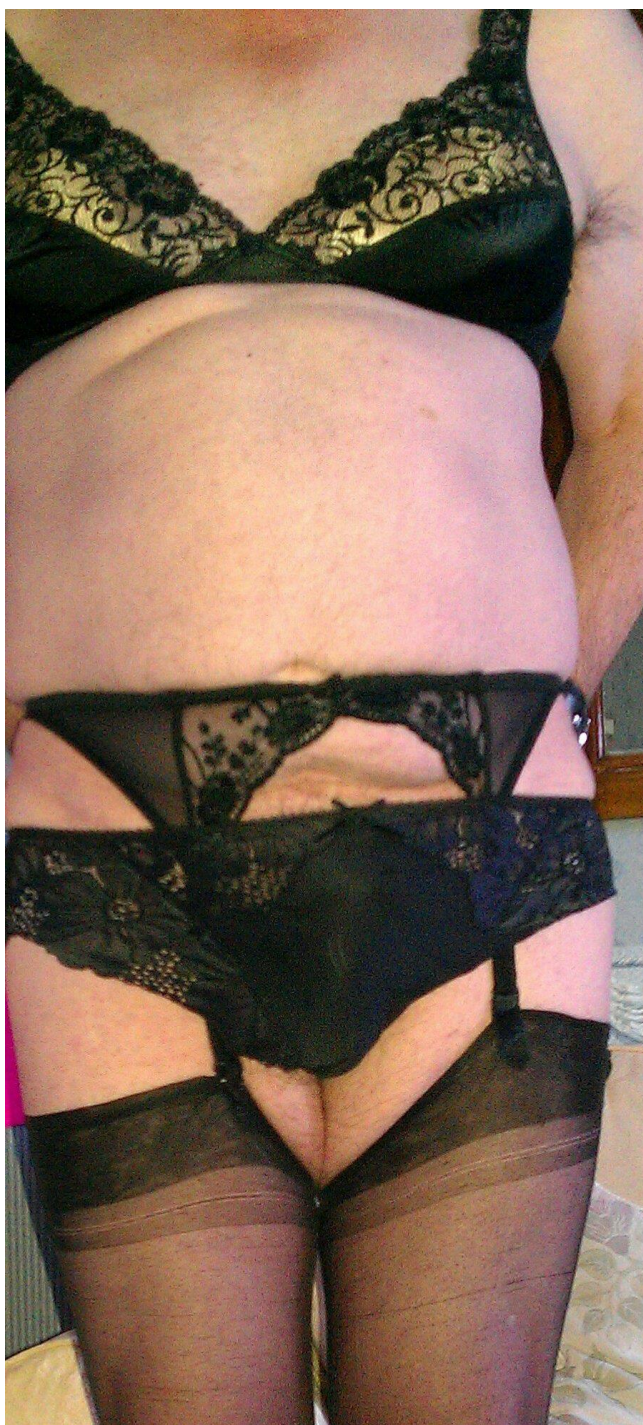

Tube 8

One man did cum and others moved uncomfortably as I massaged her bottom in the silky shiny black slip! It felt so naughty and soon we had to stop as there were young children boarding the train.

But what a session we had in the hotel an hour later. She'd really taken to this surprise exhibitionist streak in her! It lead to lots more flashing and fondling sessions, and even Anne remarked that it seemed to get the men going, seeing her silky slips and sheer stocking tops.
