

Attend our training to ensure you are well equipped to provide appropriately for your EAL (English as an additional language) learners. Teachers revealed 'they lacked confidence to meet the needs of EAL learners, and felt extra pressure to do it themselves with no external help or guidance.' <https://ealjournal.org/2018/04/23/how-well-prepared-to-teachers-feel-to-teach-eal-learners/>

1. How prepared are you for meeting the needs of your EAL learners?

Outline

Areas covered will include:

- Induction and assessment
- Listening and speaking
- Well being

Event Date: Thursday 22nd January 2026

Time: 5.15 pm - 6.30 pm

Cost: £50.00

Closing date: 15th January 2025

HOW TO BOOK: Booking details to follow.

Outcomes

Participants will feel better prepared in addressing the learning needs of EAL learners through:

- Understanding and implementing appropriate strategies to support induction (new arrivals and those in transition)
- Using appropriate assessment procedures in assessing
- Planning listening and speaking opportunities in the curriculum to support language development
- Equipping learners with tools to manage their emotions and develop positive learning attitudes

2. Assessing the Diverse Needs of Pupils New to English (including New Arrivals)

Outline

Areas covered will include:

- EAL assessment frameworks /assessment methods
- Listening, speaking, reading and writing
- Information gathering from parents/carers

Event Date: Thursday 22nd January 2026

Time: 5.15 pm - 6.30 pm

Cost: £50.00 (You will be invoiced after the event)

Outcomes

Participants will be enabled to:

- Understand the diverse experiences and needs of EAL learners, including assessing the English language proficiency of pupils
- Recognise strengths and identify areas of development
- Plan next steps, review and track progress

3. Making Mathematics Accessible for English as an Additional Language (EAL) Learners

Outline

Areas covered will include:

- Language demands of Maths lessons
- Maths language and everyday language
- Strategies and resources

Event Date: Date to be confirmed

Time: 5.15 pm - 6.30 pm

Cost: £50.00 (You will be invoiced after the event)

Outcomes

Participants will:

- Have knowledge and strategies on how to support EAL learners in Maths
- Know how to teach Maths vocabulary so that it is more accessible for EAL pupils
- Recognise strengths and identify areas of development
- Review and plan next steps

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/how-prepared-are-you-for-meeting-the-needs-of-your-eal-learners-tickets-1975223179702?aff=oddtcreator>

First two training sessions will be combined charged at £50 and further session will be offered to address particular areas of interests identified by participants. Register your interest by the 15th December 2025 and secure the early bird price of £90 for all three webinars.

Email info.rootedtraining@gmail.com to register your interest.