

Sunset Shack®

About us

WHO WE ARE

Sunset shack are spicing up the health scene with our flair for creating the world's most delicious and nourishing products. Our team is an inspired bunch who take what we do very seriously. Getting high on açai, sampling smoothie bowls, sharing our health knowledge and saving the Amazon Rainforest are all in a day's work here.

From our certified organic frozen Açai, sustainably harvested Coconut and Europe's first frozen Pink Pitaya, to the sea minerals, prebiotics, digestive enzymes and superfoods of the Raw range, the Sunset shack team understand and practice the concept of sustainability from source to consumer. We take pride in being Fair Trade, using recycled materials and vegetable inks for our brochures and packaging, as well as donating above and beyond to global environmental projects.

WHAT WE DO

The philosophy is simple: to deliver the best nutrition to you and see more happy, healthy people that are bright-eyed, energetic and full of life.

When it comes to our ingredients, we don't mess around. If it grew in nature and has superfood powers, it's in. Bursting with the colours of the rainbow and deeply nourishing, you bet! But if it's synthetic or refined, it's out. If it's not kind to the environment, then forget it!

Sunset Shack provides whole, live nutrition in a form that the body knows and utilizes.

Our AÇAÍ Journey

The Beginning

01

The Açai berries grow in palm trees in the heart of the Amazon rainforest

From the Palm Tree to Your Bowl

The Harvest

02

Local harvesters hand-pick the Açai from the palm trees using traditional methods

Pulping

03

The Açai pulp is pasteurized to ensure the berries are safe for consumption and stored in controlled temperature to keep its tasting profile and nutrients

Production

04

The final stage of the Açai production happens in the main plant, where they use the fresh pulp to produce the Açai purée
