

GOAT WALKING AT CREME DE LA CROP A Unique Family Adventure

■ BY CHERYL WOOTEN-WILCOX

Looking for a quirky and memorable family outing? Look no further than goat walking at Creme de la Crop in Valparaiso. This charming farm offers an experience like no other, where you'll find yourself not so much walking the goats as being led by them on a delightful stroll through their favorite surroundings.

At Creme de la Crop, it's all about the goats. These friendly creatures aren't just for petting—they're your guides through the farm's picturesque landscape. As you meander along, you'll quickly realize that it's the goats who set the pace, stopping occasionally to munch on the grass or investigate intriguing scents.

What makes goat walking such a special activity? For starters, it's a fantastic way to connect with nature and unwind from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. There's something inherently soothing about being in the presence of these gentle animals and soaking in the tranquil atmosphere of the farm.

Moreover, goat walking is a fun and educational experience for the whole family. Children can learn about the care and behavior of goats while enjoying hands-on interaction with them.

Creme de la Crop boasts a charming herd of female goats, each with her own distinct personality. Some have horns, some don't, but all are equally endearing. And while one may playfully head butt the others, it's all in good fun and adds to the whimsical charm of the experience.

So, if you're searching for a family-friendly adventure that's both entertaining and enriching, consider goat walking at Creme de la Crop. It's an experience you won't soon forget, filled with laughter, learning, and the gentle companionship of these delightful creatures.
